FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST - All The Saints of Ukraine

TROPAR (Tone 3): Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice, for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm. He trampled death by death; He became the first born of the dead; He saved us from the abyss of Hades and granted great mercy to the world.

TROPAR Of All Saints (Tone 4): : O Princes and Bishops glorified in Christ, you monastics and martyrs, and you staunch confessors from every age of Christian Ukraine, pray to Christ our God, that He gaze with a merciful eye on our nation and grant it the grace to endure in faith, and that the souls of its devout faithful who honour Your sacred memory, may be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and forever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 4): You shine with bright lights, O divinely inspired righteous ones of our Church and by your encouraging example, you serve the communities of the faithful throughout the Christian world. Therefore, in humility we bow our heads before you, as we thank the great and all gracious God, who made you our mediators in heaven and the intercessors for our souls.

PROKIMEN (Tone 3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

VERSE: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy

EPISTLE: A reading from the Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Romans (6:18-23)

Brothers & Sisters! Freed from your sin, you became slaves of justice. (I use the following example from human affairs because of your weak human nature.) Just as formerly you enslaved your bodies to impurity and licentiousness for their degradation, make them now the servants of justice for your sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you had freedom from justice. What benefit did you then enjoy? Things you are now ashamed of, all of them tending toward death. But now that you are freed from sin and have become slaves of God, your benefit is sanctification as you tend toward eternal life. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ALLELUIA VERSES: In You, O Lord, have I hoped that I may not be put to shame for ever.
Be a protector unto me, O God, and a house of refuge to save me.

GOSPEL: Matthew 8:5-13

At that time as Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion approached him with this request: "Sir, my serving boy is at home in bed paralyzed, suffering painfully." He said to him, "I will come and cure him." "Sir," the centurion said in reply, "I am not worthy to have you under my roof. Just give an order and my boy will get better. I am a man under authority myself and I have troops assigned to me. If I give one man the order, 'Dismissed,' off he goes. If I say to another, 'Come here,' he comes. If I tell my slave, 'Do this,' he does it." Jesus showed amazement on hearing this and remarked to his followers, "I assure you, I have never found this much faith in Israel. Mark what I say! Many will come from the east and the west and will find a place at the banquet in the kingdom of God with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, while the natural heirs of the kingdom will be driven out into the dark. Wailing will be heard there, and the grinding of teeth." To the centurion Jesus said, "Go home. It shall be done because you trusted." That very moment the boy got better.

BYZANTINE ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ,
The Son of the living God, who came into the world
To save sinners of whom I am the first.

Although I cannot now be a partaker of your mystical supper,
O Son of God,
Come at least spiritually into my heart by your Divine Grace for the healing of my soul and body.

For I will not reveal your mystery to your enemies,
Nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas,
But like the thief I profess to you:

- + Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.
- + Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.
- + Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

O Lord, I also believe and profess, that this,
Which I would receive, and which is now here present with us in Mystery,
Is truly your most precious Body, and your life-giving Blood.
May I one day partake of your mystical supper again For the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen

- + O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.
- + O God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.
- + O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

With Ecclesiastical Approbation. Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Phoenix

. For those who are watching via livestreaming, please recite the prayer below:

SPECIAL NOTE: For those who are in church today, we will be reciting the regular prayer before communion.

Passing of +Rev. Rudolph Luzney

"Remember those who led you, who spoke the word of God to you; and considering the result of their conduct, imitate their faith." (Hebrews 13:7)

With joyful hearts and in thanksgiving to Our Lord for a beautiful life well-lived, we wish to inform you of the passing on June 19, 2020 of Rt. Rev. Rudolph Luzney, a good and faithful servant of Our St. Athanasius Parish and of other parishes of the Eparchy of Saskatoon.

Fr. Rudolph Luzney, as the first priest of St. Athanasius Parish, will be remembered as a community man who ensured the faith formation of the people entrusted to his care. His life as a priest touched people, where he was a thoughtful and dedicated leader, a kind and interesting man, with clear thoughts and visions. He was instrumental in teaching the Ukrainian Catholic faith and in teaching singers how to respond to the Liturgical Services of our Rite.

In July 1965 Rev. Rudolph Luzney was appointed to investigate the possibility of establishing a second Ukrainian Catholic Parish in Regina. He celebrated the first Divine Liturgy of the proposed parish at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church in May 1966. In November 1966 he celebrated the Liturgies at O'Neill High School Auditorium and continued doing this until February 1972 when St. Athanasius Parish auditorium was completed. For his years of service at St. Athanasius Parish, the auditorium was named in his honour at the celebration of the 40th anniversary. Rt. Rev. Msgr. & Mitrat Rudolph Luzney served at St. Athanasius from 1966-1982. Funeral was held on Tuesday, June 23rd at the Dormition of the Blessed Mother of God Parish in Saskatoon.

May God grant comfort and consolation to Fr. Rudolph's family, Bishop Bryan and his fellow clergy of the Eparchy of Saskatoon at this time.

Your prayers and thoughts are greatly appreciated!

May God grant to his servant, +Rt. Rev. Rudolph, peace and may perpetual light shine upon him.

Вічна Пам'ять – Vichnaya Pamyat! Eternal Memory!

SYMPATHY AND CONDOLENCES are extended to the family and friends of Rt. +Rev Rudolph Luzney, who passed away on June 19th, 2020.

HEALING OF THE CENTURION'S SERVANT

Icon of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist

In many passages throughout the Gospels, Jesus heals people, both physically and spiritually. In this case, He demonstrates that He is the Savior of all, because the centurion — commander of 100 men in the Roman army — is a Gentile. With Christ, ethnic and social distinctions do not matter when it comes to salvation.

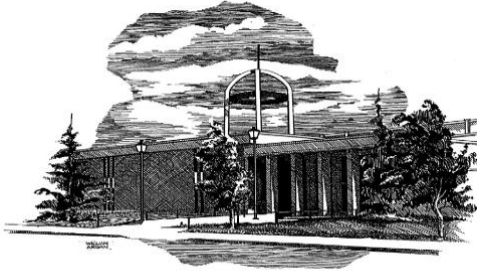

The phrase from this story, "Lord I am not worthy that you should come under my roof ..." is used frequently in liturgical services. It is an expression that shows our deep unworthiness before God, and helps us understand the notion of true modesty.

In this story, the centurion's faith in Jesus as Lord is complete and firm. He even believes that Christ does not need to come and visit his sick servant, but "only say the word" and he shall be healed.

This is an example for all of us to put our complete trust in God, to heal our soul and our bodies, and that even though we may be unworthy, Christ will heal us and grant us our petitions. Jesus praises the centurion and lifts him up as a model of faith, and challenges us to have that same kind of unwavering and complete faith in Him.
