

BULLETINS CANNOT BE LEFT ANYWHERE IN THE CHURCH. PLEASE TAKE HOME AND RECYCLE.

The Divine Liturgy of Saint John Chrysostom Book is now available to parishioners attending Divine Liturgy service. The book is yours to take home. When you attend service you are to bring the book with you. Please DO NOT leave the book in the church.

RETURN TO IN-PERSON SERVICES

As it was announced that effective June 8, 2020, places of worship may resume services provided social distancing of two metres can be maintained between each individual household. The allowable occupancy is one-third of the defined occupancy rate of the facility to a maximum of 30 individuals for the initial stage of re-opening. Following these guidelines, Bishop Bryan has written a pastoral letter with instructions for all churches in the Eparchy of Saskatoon. Please take a moment to read this IMPORTANT letter: Updated COVID Instructions.

SUNDAY LITURGIES: If you wish to attend Liturgy on Sundays, please contact Rosanne Miller, 306-543-5773, to confirm your attendance. This is a reminder that this process must be followed for EACH Sunday. You can leave a message for Rosanne if she is not home, and she will confirm whether or not there is space for you. Thank you for your cooperation.

WEEKDAY LITURGIES: If you wish to attend weekday Liturgies, please register by calling Fr. Vasyl at 306-519-9030.

Please join our services by visiting our website and clicking on the Livestream icon: <https://st-athanasius.ca/nl/> or on Facebook: <https://facebook.com/reginaukrainiancatholicnorth/>

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST - Holy Fathers of the 7th Council

TROPAR (Tone 2): When You went down to death, O Life Immortal, You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. When You raised the dead from the nether world, all the powers of heaven cried out: "O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!"

TROPAR Of The Holy Fathers (Tone 8): O Christ our God, You are above all praise, for You established our Fathers as beacons to all the earth. You led us to the true faith through them. O Most Bountiful Lord, glory be to You.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 2): You rose from the tomb, O almighty Savior; and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose. Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults. And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

PROKIMEN (Tone 2): The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

Verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (11:31-12:9)

Brothers and Sisters! The God and Father of the Lord Jesus knows --- blessed be he forever --- that I do not lie. In Damascus the ethnarch of King Aretas was keeping a close watch on the city in order to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands. I must go on boasting, however useless it may be, and speak of visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ who, fourteen years ago, whether he was in or outside his body I cannot say, only God can say --- a man who was snatched up to the third heaven. I know that this man --- whether in or outside his body I do not know, God knows --- was snatched up to Paradise to hear words which cannot be uttered, words which no man may speak. About this man I will boast; but I will do no boasting about myself unless it be about my weaknesses. And even if I were to boast it would not be folly in me because I would only be telling the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from my lips. As to the extraordinary revelations, in order that I might not become conceited I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and keep me from getting proud. Three times I begged the Lord that this might leave me. He said to me, "My grace is enough for you, for in weakness power reaches perfection." And so I willingly boast of my weaknesses instead, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

ALLELUIA VERSES: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

Lord, grant victory to the king, and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

GOSPEL: (Luke 6:31-36)

The Lord said: "Do to others what you would have them do to you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, how can you claim any credit? Sinners do as much. If you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what merit is there in it for you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. Love your enemy and do good; lend without expecting repayment. Then will your recompense be great. You will rightly be called sons of the Most High, since he himself is good to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be compassionate, as your Father is compassionate."

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

SPECIAL NOTE: For those who are in church today, we will be reciting the regular prayer before communion.

For those who are watching via livestreaming, please recite the prayer below:

BYZANTINE ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ,
The Son of the living God, who came into the world
To save sinners of whom I am the first.

Although I cannot now be a partaker of your mystical supper,
O Son of God,
Come at least spiritually into my heart by your Divine Grace for the healing of my soul and body.

For I will not reveal your mystery to your enemies,
Nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas,
But like the thief I profess to you:

- + Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.
- + Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.
- + Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

O Lord, I also believe and profess, that this,
Which I would receive, and which is now here present with us in Mystery,
Is truly your most precious Body, and your life-giving Blood.
May I one day partake of your mystical supper again For the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen

- + O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.
- + O God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.
- + O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

With Ecclesiastical Approbation. Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Phoenix

Fifth Youth Festival Viter Na-Dii: "Time of Possibilities"

Submitted by

Lesia Lazurko, Regina Youth Coordinator

Viktoriia Marko, Eparchial Youth Minister

Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon

On September 13, 2020, the Youth Festival "Viter Na-Dii" took place, which this year achieved an incredible feat: it united the youth of our Ukrainian Catholic Church all over the world!

~ 11 hours of live broadcast;

~ 381 festival locations around the world attended by 3,917 people;

~ 10,000 views on YouTube;

~ 80,825 views on Facebook.

Canadian youth participated in this festival for the first time. A National Youth Organizing Committee was established, which worked actively and diligently to ensure that this important event took place at the national level. The program began with the blessing by His Excellency, Bishop Bryan Bayda, CSSR, on the ZOOM platform and the presentation of the festival by the youth of Saskatoon. All online participants joined in viewing the address of His Beatitude Sviatoslav Shevchuk. From all over the world young people asked questions of His Beatitude, and received thorough and invaluable spiritual advice. The youth of Saskatoon were then included in “Zhyve Television” – “Живе Телебачення”, which broadcast the entire festival in all locations of the world, and our young people brought greetings on behalf of all Ukrainian youth in Canada.

It is worth noting that these young people gathered in person at St. George's Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral in Saskatoon to celebrate this day; to be spiritually enriched, and to feel oneness with our global Church. After the greeting, all participants had the opportunity to take part in the Divine Liturgy, and then return to the national celebration in the ZOOM platform. The Canadian National Viter Na-Dii program included a meeting with the Bishops of Canada (Bishop David Motiuk and Bishop Bryan Bayda, CSsR), and other speakers (Deborah Larmour and Hudson Byblow), to whom young people could ask various questions. In separate online locations, three speakers: Father André Lalach, Father Warren Dungen and Dr. Will Turk, conducted very interesting and informative sessions. Afterwards there was a music venue, where young participants were able to show their wonderful singing talents. Sisters Kateryna and Natalia Tokarski from Saskatoon, Yurii Konevych and Anna Babka Konevych from Montreal, and Bishop Bryan Bayda, CSsR, who performed his own songs, shared these talents with all the participants. The national level of the program ended with a blessing and a final prayer.

For the Saskatoon youth gathered at St. George's Cathedral, the celebration program continued. They took part in various games, shared their experiences and impressions. The program ended with a movie night and pizza.

Here are the impressions of some participants of the festival at the location of Saskatoon:

Sofiya Fayfruk: This Viter Na-Dii event was truly, led by the Holy Spirit! Being a host helped me to understand how beautiful and important it is to have people all over the world unite all together to praise God. This day touched many hearts, including mine!

Ethan Grebeniuk: This day was a very unique and new experience, and I have never participated in anything like it before. It took me aback & perplexed me by how well it turned out! It really lends perspective to the scale and size of the Ukrainian Catholic community and helped unite it globally, and it did so admirably!

Anna Marko: One day spent with these amazing people gave me energy and inspiration for the entire year ahead. These many hours spent at Viter Na-dii let me find answers to many questions and gave me feelings of belonging, joy and peace. It is incredible to think how connected we all are, not just the Ukrainian youth in Saskatoon, but the youth in Canada and in the entire world. This was the event that gave me a strong spiritual push and once again proved that anything is possible with God's help.

In addition to the Saskatoon location, several youth and young adults gathered at St. Athanasius Parish in Regina, Saskatchewan to participate in the Viter Na-dii Festival. Similar to the gathering in Saskatoon, they participated in leading the rosary prior to the Divine Liturgy, with intentions for all the youth gathered to attend the Viter Na-dii Festival, and in the Divine Liturgy. Father Vasyl Tymishak's homily spoke directly to the youth. He focused on the message of His Beatitude Sviatoslav to the youth that morning and tying everything to the Gospel reading of the Sunday before the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Both Viter Na-Dii and the Gospel focused on encounter with Jesus. Father Vasyl said, “Our Ukrainian Catholic Church in Ukraine and throughout the world is seeking to listen to our youth most attentively in order to accompany the youth on their journey to maturity, so that through the process on discernment they discover and plan for life and realize it with joy. Opening up for the encounter with God and with human beings.” May we remember this message of encountering Jesus in our journey.

Afterwards we had lunch and enjoyed playing Cranium: Bible Edition prior to re-joining everyone virtually to participate in the rest of the National Viter Na-dii Festival. There was much laughter shared amongst us all. Our group was fortunate to hear Father Lalach speak about Prayer and the “What, When and Where” of prayer. This session was enlightening and very interactive allowing us to take the information we received and implement it into our daily routine.

This event had finally brought us together in person after not gathering since February 2020, prior to COVID-19 Pandemic. It was truly a wonderful day dedicated to the youth in the Ukrainian Catholic Church; reminding us of the importance of allowing the youth to find themselves within the church and listening to what they have to say, as they know how we can reach this generation!

GRATITUDE

We would like to sincerely thank our Saskatoon Youth, who became the main organizers at our location level, as well as Bishop Bryan Bayda, CSsR, and Father Ivan Nahachewsky, for their presence, prayers and constant support; as well as our speakers and singers, for their talents and openness. We truly thank Lorne Diakow for the technical aspect for the festival, and the Ukrainian Catholic Women’s League of St. George’s Cathedral, in particular Marlene Bodnar, for organizing a dinner for our participants, and to the Parish Council of St. George’s Cathedral, who received us so hospitably! Many thanks to the leaders and organizers of the festival at the international level, namely the Patriarchal Youth Commission and the National Youth Organizing Committee of Canada, who made it possible for everyone to get enriched, unite and create a Common Youth Space of our Church!

From the Regina location of St. Athanasius Ukrainian Catholic Church, we wish to thank Father Vasyl Tymishak and Father Vladimir Simunovic for their support in promoting this event, encouraging the youth to gather and for their presence. Thank you to St. Athanasius Parish for accommodating us with a change in Divine Liturgy time so the youth and young adults could attend and allowing us to gather in a space where we can grow spiritually. Lastly, thank you to our National Organizing Committee and the Viter NaDii Festival Committee in Ukraine for organizing a spiritual and enriching event allowing us to gather as a Ukrainian Catholic family, not only locally, but also globally.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

LORD, thank you for walking with us through
The seasons of our lives.

For the winter, when we are held safe
In your arms through the darkness.

For the hope of spring,
As we are filled with new promise and life.

For summer time
Full of warmth and colour.

And for autumn days
As leaves fall to seed new growth.

You are always with us.

Amen.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION for October: evangelisation – The Laity's Mission in the Church
We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church.
