NOTE: Please remember that from Resurrection Sunday up to Ascension Thursday, we stand to pray. Note also that from Easter Sunday to Ascension Thursday, at daily Liturgies, the Sunday antiphons are recited and the tropar, kondak, etc. are read from the preceding Sunday bulletin. The Epistle and Gospel are of the day.

Христос Воскрес! Воістину Воскрес! Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen!

EASTER REFRAIN: Christ is risen from the dead, by death He conquered death, and to those in the graves He granted life.

END OF LITURGY: He granted us eternal life, we exalt and glorify His Resurrection.

SUNDAY OF THE PARALYTIC

TROPAR (Tone 3): Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice, for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm. He trampled death by death; He became the first born of the dead; He saved us from the abyss of Hades and granted great mercy to the world.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 3): With your divine protection, O Lord, as You once raised the Paralytic, now lift up my soul paralyzed with all kinds of sin and evil deeds of wickedness, so that, as saved, I may cry out to You: "Glory to your might, O merciful Christ."

now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 8): Though You went down to the grave, immortal Lord, You destroyed the power of Hades and rose victorious, Christ our God. You who said "Rejoice" to the myrrh-bearing women, give peace to Your apostles and offer resurrection to the fallen.

PROKIMEN (Tone 1): Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

VERSE: : Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (9: 32-42)

In those days Peter was making numerous journeys, he went -- among other places -- to God's holy people living in Lydda. There he found a man named Aeneas, a paralytic who had been bedridden for eight years. Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ cures you! Get up and make your bed." The man got up at once. All the inhabitants of Lydda and Sharon, upon seeing him, were converted to the Lord. Now in Joppa there was a certain woman convert named Tabitha (in Greek Dorcas, meaning a gazelle). Her life was marked by constant good deeds and acts of charity. At about that time she fell ill and died. They washed her body and laid it out in an upstairs room. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples who had heard that Peter was there sent two men to him with the urgent request, "Please come over to us without delay." Peter set out with them as they asked. Upon his arrival they took him upstairs to the room. All the widows came to him in tears and showed him the various garments Dorcas had made when she was still with them. Peter first made everyone go outside; then he knelt down and prayed. Turning to the dead body, he said, "Tabitha, stand up." She opened her eyes, then looked at Peter and sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her to her feet. The next thing he did was to call in those who were believers and the widows to show them that she was alive. This became known all over Joppa, and because of it, many came to believe in the Lord.

*ALLELUIA VERSES: The favors of the Lord I will sing forever, through all generations.
For you have said: my kindness is established forever.*

GOSPEL: John 5: 1-15

At that time Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Pool there is a place with the Hebrew name Bethesda. It's five porticoes were crowded with sick people lying there blind, lame or disabled, waiting for the movement of the water. For from time to time an angel of the Lord used to come down into the pool; and the water was stirred up, so the first one to get in was healed of whatever sickness he had had. There was one man who had been sick for thirty eight years. Jesus, who knew he had been sick a long time, said when he saw him lying there, "Do you want to be healed?" "Sir," the sick man answered, "I do not have anyone to plunge me into the pool once the water has been stirred up. By the time I get there, someone else has gone in ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up! Pick up your mat and walk!" The man was immediately cured; he picked up his mat and began to walk. The day was a sabbath. Consequently, some of the Jews began telling the man who had been cured, "It is the sabbath, and you are not allowed to carry the mat around." He explained, "It was the man who cured me who told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'" "This person who told you to pick it up and walk," they asked, "who is he?" The man who had been restored to health had no idea who it was. The crowd in that place was so great that Jesus had been able to slip away. Later on, Jesus found him in the temple precincts and said to him: "Remember, now, you have been cured. Give up your sins so that something worse may not overtake you." The man went off and informed the Jews that Jesus was the one who had cured him.

INSTEAD OF 'It is truly right...': The Angel greeted You O full of grace, O purest virgin rejoice and again I say rejoice. Your Son has risen from the tomb on the third day, and has raised all who were dead. O mankind rejoice!

Shine O Shine, O new Jerusalem for the glory of the Lord has surrounded you; be happy now and rejoice O Zion. And you pure Mother of God, exalt and rejoice in the Resurrection of Him who was born of you.

COMMUNION HYMN: Receive the Body of Christ; partake of the source of immortality. Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

INSTEAD OF 'Blessed is He who come....', 'We have seen the true light...', 'May our mouths be filled ...', and 'Blessed be the name...':

Khrystos Voskrese Khrystos voskrese voskrese, voskrese, iz mertvykh, Smerti-u, smert'poprav, Smerti-u, smert' poprav, Isuschym vo hrobikh, Isuschym vo hrobikh, zhyvot, zhyvot, zhyvot daryvav!

or

Arise and Rejoice! Arise and rejoice, Arise, arise with the risen Lord. Through His death, death has gone! Through His death, death has gone! Everyone who was dead, Everyone who was dead, Ever, everlasting life has won!

At the conclusion of Liturgy:

EASTER REFRAIN: Christ is risen from the dead, by death He conquered death, and to those in the graves He granted life. (3X)

ENDING: He granted us eternal life, we exalt and glorify His Resurrection.

SYMPATHY AND CONDOLENCES are extended to Janet Bzdel and Gerald Mydan and family, on the death of her sister, Beverly Bzdel-Kitzul who passed away on Monday, April 25th. Funeral service was held on Thursday, May 5th, at St. Micheals Ukrainian Catholic Church, Foam Lake. SK.

Вічна Пам'ять – Vichnaya Pamyat! Eternal Memory!

NOW THAT COVID restrictions have been lifted and we start to see a return to some normalcy, we are looking for volunteers to be tabulators, (to open and count the envelopes after Sunday Liturgy). There is still time to enjoy a coffee afterwards. All interested ladies and gentlemen are asked to provide their names, e-mail addresses, and phone numbers to Rosanne Miller who will then prepare a schedule. Please contact Rosanne via email at gtmiller@myaccess.ca or by phone at 306-543-5773. No experience necessary as training is available!

COFFEE SCHEDULE: Coffee and socializing after Sunday Divine Liturgy has resumed. Please, if you can sign up for a Sunday to serve coffee, juice and cookies this would be very much appreciated. Coffee schedule sign up sheets are located in the front foyer desk and on the kitchen table. If no one signs up for serving this would be an indicator no one is interested in having coffee after Sunday Divine Liturgy and will be discontinued. Also, the parish is looking for someone to be in charge of purchasing supplies for this weekly event. If you have questions, Carl and Linda Korchynski would be able to answer them. Please, help out when you can.

ST. A'S APPEAL FOR AID TO UKRAINE

As we witness the horrors occurring throughout Ukraine many are asking, how they can help.

St. Athanasius has created the Aid for Ukraine Appeal which will continue throughout May. Anyone who wishes to donate can do so in person, using the Aid for Ukraine envelopes available at the church, or online using "Aid for Ukraine Appeal" and your envelope number in the message box. SUNDAY OF THE PARALYTIC MAN

Icon of Healing the Paralytic Man

JESUS OUR HEALER

This mat the man is told to take up, what does it mean but that he is told to raise up the human body? This is the bed of pain upon which our soul lies sick in the grievous torment of a bothered conscience. But if anyone bear this bed according to the commandments of Christ, it is no longer a bed of pain, but of rest. Because what was death, begins now to be rest, by the mercy of the Lord who has changed our sleep of death into the grace of the delight of the Lord. He is told not only to take up his bed, but also to return to his house; that is, he is told to return to paradise; for that is his true home and the first to receive him: lost, not by law, but by fraud. Rightly therefore is his home restored to him, since he has come who destroyed the deed of fraud, and restored his right. You alone I follow, Lord Jesus, who heals my wounds. For what shall separate me from the love of God, which is in you? Shall tribulation, or distress, or famine? I am held fast as though by nails, and fettered by the bonds of charity. Remove from me, O Lord Jesus, with your potent sword, the corruption of my sins. Secure me in the bonds of your love; cut away what is corrupt in me. Come quickly and make an end of my many, my hidden and secret afflictions. Open the wound lest the evil humor spread. With your new washing, cleanse in me all that is stained. Hear me, those of you who in your sins bring forth drunken thoughts. I have found a physician. He dwells in heaven and distributes his healing on earth. He alone can heal my pains who Himself has none. He alone who knows what is hidden can take away the grief of my heart, the fear of my soul: Jesus Christ. Christ is grace. Christ is life. Christ is resurrection.

St. Ambrose of Milan

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

If roses grow in heaven lord
then pick a bunch from me, place them in my mothers arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that i love and miss her, and as she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
Remembering her is easy
because i do it every day, but there's a pain within my heart which will never go away....
