Христос Воскрес! Воистину Воскрес! Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen!

END OF LITURGY: He granted us eternal life, we exalt and glorify His Resurrection.

SUNDAY OF THE SAMARITAN WOMAN
- Fifth Sunday After Pascha

TROPAR (Tone 4): When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the glorious news of the resurrection and cast off the ancestral condemnation, they proudly told the apostles: "Death has been plundered! Christ our God is risen granting to the world great mercy."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

KONDAK (Tone 8): When the Samaritan woman came to the well with faith, she beheld You, O Water of Wisdom. You allowed her to drink in abundance and glorified her eternally, for she inherited the heavenly kingdom.

now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK OF THE MID-FEAST (Tone 4): O Christ God, Creator and Lord of all, when the Paschal Feast was half completed, You told those present: "Come and draw the water of immortality." Let us, therefore, adore You and cry out with faith: "Grant us your goodness, for You are the Source of our life.*

PROKIMEN (Tone 3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

VERSE: All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of gladness.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (11:19 – 26, 29 - 30)

In those days those in the community who had been dispersed by the persecution that arose because of Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch, making the message known to none but Jews. However, some men of Cyprus and Cyrene among them who had come to Antioch began to talk even to the Greeks, announcing the good news of the Lord Jesus to them. The hand of the Lord was with them and a great number of them believed and were converted to the Lord. News of this eventually reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, resulting in Barnabas' being sent to Antioch. On his arrival he rejoiced to see the evidence of God's favour. He encouraged them all to remain firm in their commitment to the Lord, since he himself was a good man filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. Thereby large numbers were added to the Lord. Then Barnabas went off to Tarsus to look for Saul; once he had found him, he brought him back to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and instructed great numbers. It was in Antioch that the disciples were called Christians for the first time. This made the disciples determine to set something aside, each according to his means, and send it to the relief of brothers who lived in Judea. They did this, dispatching it to the presbyters in the care of Barnabas and Saul.

ALLELUIA VERSES: Bend your bow, prosper and reign for the sake of truth, meekness and justice.

You love justice and hate wickedness.

GOSPEL: John 4:5 - 43

At that time Jesus came to a Samaritan town named Shechem near the plot of land which Jacob had given to his son Joseph. This was the site of Jacob's well. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down at the well. The hour was about noon. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone off to the town to buy provisions.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew. How can you ask me, a Samaritan and a woman, for a drink?" (Recall that Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans.) Jesus replied: "If only you recognized God's gift, and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him instead, and he would have given you living water." "Sir," she challenged him, "you do not have a bucket and this well is deep. Where do you expect to get this flowing water? Surely you do not pretend to be greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it with his sons and his flocks?" Jesus replied: "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. But whoever drinks the water I give him will never be thirsty; no, the water I give shall become a fountain within him, leaping up to provide eternal life." The woman said to him, "Give me this water, sir, so that I shall not grow thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water." He said to her, "Go, call your husband, and then come back here." "I have no husband," replied the woman. "You are right in saying you have no husband!" Jesus exclaimed. "The fact is, you have had five, and the man you are living with now is not your husband. What you said is true." "Sir," answered the woman, "I can see you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you people claim that Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship God.” Jesus told her: “Believe me, woman, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand, while we understand what we worship; after all, salvation is from the Jews. Yet an hour is coming, and is already here, when authentic worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth. Indeed, it is just such worshipers the Father seeks. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth.” The woman said to him: “I know there is a Messiah coming. (This term means Anointed.) When he comes, he will tell us everything.” Jesus replied, “I who speak to you am he.” His disciples returning at this point, were surprised that Jesus was speaking with a woman. No one put a question, however, such as “What do you want of him?” or “Why are you talking with her?” The woman left her water jar and went off into the town. She said to the people: “Come and see someone who told me everything I ever did! Could this not be the Messiah?” At that they set out from the town to meet him. Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.” But he told them: “I have food to eat of which you do not know.” At this the disciples said to one another, “Do you suppose that someone has brought him something to eat?” Jesus explained to them: “Doing the will of him who sent me and bringing his work to completion is my food. Do you not have a saying: ‘Four months more and it will be harvest!’? Listen to what I say: Open your eyes and see! The fields are shining for harvest! The reaper already collects his wages and gathers a yield for eternal life, that sower and reaper may rejoice together. Here we have the saying verified: ‘One man sows; another reaps.’ I sent you to reap what you had not worked for. Others have done the labour, and you have come into their gain.” Many Samaritans from that town believed in him on the strength of the woman’s word of testimony: “He told me everything I ever did.” The result was that, when these Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them awhile. So he stayed there two days, and through his own spoken word many more came to faith. As they told the woman: “No longer does our faith depend on your story. We have heard for ourselves, and we know that this really is the Saviour of the world.”

INSTEAD OF ‘It is truly right...’: The Angel greeted You O full of grace, O purest virgin rejoice and again I say rejoice. Your Son has risen from the tomb on the third day, and has raised all who were dead. O mankind rejoice!

Shine O Shine, O new Jerusalem for the glory of the Lord has surrounded you; be happy now and rejoice O Zion. And you pure Mother of God, exalt and rejoice in the Resurrection of Him who was born of you.

COMMUNION HYMN: Receive the Body of Christ; partake of the source of immortality. Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

INSTEAD OF 'Blessed is He who come....', 'We have seen the true light...', 'May our mouths be filled ...', and 'Blessed be the name...':

Khrystos Voskrese Khrystos voskrese voskrese, voskrese, iz mertvykh, Smerti-u, smert'poprav, Smerti-u, smert' poprav, Isuschym vo hrobikh, Isuschym vo hrobikh, zhyvot, zhyvot, zhyvot daryvav!

Arise and Rejoice! Arise and rejoice, Arise, arise with the risen Lord. Through His death, death has gone! Through His death, death has gone! Everyone who was dead, Everyone who was dead, Ever, everlasting life has won!

At the conclusion of Liturgy:

EASTER REFRAIN: Christ is risen from the dead, by death He conquered death, and to those in the graves He granted life. (3X)

ENDING: He granted us eternal life, we exalt and glorify His Resurrection.

NOW THAT COVID restrictions have been lifted and we start to see a return to some normalcy, we are looking for volunteers to be tabulators, (to open and count the envelopes after Sunday Liturgy). There is still time to enjoy a coffee afterwards. All interested ladies and gentlemen are asked to provide their names, e-mail addresses, and phone numbers to Rosanne Miller who will then prepare a schedule. Please contact Rosanne via email at gtmiller@myaccess.ca or by phone at 306-543-5773. No experience necessary as training is available!

COFFEE SCHEDULE: Coffee and socializing after Sunday Divine Liturgy has resumed. Please, if you can sign up for a Sunday to serve coffee, juice and cookies this would be very much appreciated. Coffee schedule sign up sheets are located in the front foyer desk and on the kitchen table. If no one signs up for serving this would be an indicator no one is interested in having coffee after Sunday Divine Liturgy and will be discontinued. Also, the parish is looking for someone to be in charge of purchasing supplies for this weekly event. If you have questions, Carl and Linda Korchynski would be able to answer them. Please, help out when you can.

The staff at the Marian Centre are still providing bagged lunches, but hope to resume hot lunches on June 6th. Needless to say the last two plus years has been difficult for them. Today the Parish Bulletin Insert features programs and initiatives offered through the Eparchial Youth & Young Adults. Today, as never before, our Church is called to become missionary disciples to accompany, inspire and be present to our young people. Our youth truly have a missionary spirit; however, it needs to be revealed, nourished, and sustained. Initiatives supported by your donations to the Annual Eparchial Appeal help to do just that.

Did you know that there is more than one way to give to the Annual Eparchial Appeal? You can:

- ✓ Make a one-time gift.
- ✓ Make a pledge and spread out your pledge over 12 (or less) monthly payments.
- ✓ Have your donation matched by your company with a Corporate Matching Gift.
- ✓ Online donations using the QR code which links directly to the UCFSask website.

Thirty years ago, there were over 12,000 Faithful in our Eparchy. Today, we have 2,291 Parish Families (approximately 5,500 Faithful). Your generosity and support of the Eparchial Ministries will contribute significantly to a positive future and growth of our Eparchy, and for the glory of Jesus Christ.

If you want more information concerning the Annual Eparchial Appeal, or if you would like to listen to some of the testimonials from individuals who have participated in the various Eparchial Ministry programs, please go to the Ukrainian Catholic Foundation of Saskatchewan's website at www.ucfsask.org.

CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF SASKATCHEWAN

May 4, 2022

Catholic Education Week May 22-29, 2022

In joy and thanksgiving, we, the Catholic Bishops of Saskatchewan, invite you to join us in recognizing the gift and the impact of Catholic education as we mark World Catholic Education Day on May 26, 2022, and celebrate Catholic Education Week in our province from May 22 to May 29.

This year's theme is "Catholic Education: Rebuild, Restore, Renew Together." As educators, students, and families around the globe deal with many challenges – including the ongoing effects of the pandemic - this is a time where educators and parents are adjusting and giving in unprecedented ways. While this time features difficulty and even hardship, it is also a time of reflection and new opportunity.

Catholic Schools have a proven track record for excellence in all things, and a commitment to nurturing love (caritas), community (koinonia), and caring service (servitus) through staff who give tirelessly for the future of our children. We pray that all involved in supporting the education of our young people – families, teaching, pastors and parishioners, the larger community – will be renewed in being examples of Christian virtue and the love of faith that seeks wisdom and service.

In this sense, Catholic education seeks excellence: an excellence which involves developing and bringing to bear all young peoples' gifts and abilities to be excellent disciples of the Lord as they humbly serve God's plan to make the world a better place and seek our ultimate destiny.

We join together in giving thanks to God for the gift of Catholic education and its unique contribution to our province and our communities. We pray in thanksgiving for the continuing existence and protection of publicly-funded Catholic education in Saskatchewan, and for God's abundant wisdom and blessings on educators, students and families as we continue to live the identity and mission of Catholic faith-based education in our province.

May we continue to model Christ: "... the Way, the Truth and the Life...", (John 14:6) and develop the head and the heart so that we may serve our brothers and sisters seeking, "... a new heaven and a new earth." (Rev. 21:1).

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

SUNDAY OF THE SAMARITAN WOMAN

Icon of Christ with the Samaritan Woman hear His teachings. After hearing His word, they come to believe in Him, and proclaim Him "the Savior of the world:" In 4:42)

With water as the focal point of this encounter, we are once again reminded of our Baptism, and that Christ's Baptism is that of "eternal life" through "living water:"

The Samaritan Woman

The Fourth Gospel, attributed to Saint John the Evangelist, is used exclusively from Easter until Pentecost for the Sunday readings. The first chapter of John's Gospel is the proclamation used for the Divine Liturgy on Easter itself. This week, we are reminded of the story of Christ's encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well of Jacob, and thereby Christ's fulfillment of the Old Testament. In one of the many unique stories of the Fourth Gospel not found in the Synoptics (Matthew, Mark or Luke), Jesus reveals himself as Messiah to this woman of Samaria and talks with her about the "water that I will give will become ... a spring of water gushing up to eternal life:"

In the early days of His ministry, Jesus travels back and forth between Galilee and Jerusalem, and must pass through Samaria. The Samaritans were outcast Jews because they were not subject to the Babylonian exile of the Israelites from other provinces. Therefore, when Jesus talks with this Samaritan woman, His disciples are surprised and in shock that He would carry on a conversation with a woman at the well, let alone a Samaritan. But as the story is explained, the woman's testimony about Jesus spreads through the nearby town, and because of her many come to
