Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
- All Saints Sunday

TROPAR (Tone 8): You came down from on high, O Merciful One, and accepted three days of burial to free us from our sufferings. O Lord, our life and our resurrection, glory be to You.

TROPAR OF THE SAINTS (Tone 4): Your Church throughout the world, O Lord is clothed with the blood of your martyrs as with fine linens and purple robes; and so the Church cries out to You, O Christ our God: "Send down your goodness upon your people; grant peace to your Church and great mercy to our souls."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 8): To You, O Lord, Author of all creation, the universe offers the God-bearing martyrs as the first-fruit of nature. Through their prayers and the intercession of the Mother of God preserve your Church, your dwelling place, in perfect peace, O most merciful One.

PROKIMEN (Tone 8): Pray and give praise to the Lord our God.

Verse: God is renowned in Judah, in Israel great is his name.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Epistle to the Hebrews (11:33 – 12:2)

Brothers and Sisters! All who by faith conquered kingdoms, did what was just, obtained the promises; they broke the jaws of lions, put out raging fires, escaped the devouring sword; though weak they were made powerful, became strong in battle, and turned back foreign invaders. Women received back their dead through resurrection. Others were tortured and would not receive deliverance, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Still others endured mockery, scourging, even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, sawed in two, put to death at sword's point; they went about garbed in the skins of sheep or goats, needy, afflicted, tormented. The world was not worthy of them. They wandered about in deserts and on mountains, they dwelt in caves and in holes of the earth. Yet despite the fact that all of these were approved because of their faith, they did not obtain what had been promised. God had made a better plan, a plan which included us. Without us, they were not to be made perfect. Therefore, since we for our part are surrounded by this cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every encumbrance of sin which clings to us and persevere in running the race which lies ahead; let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, who inspires and perfects our faith.

ALLELUIA VERSES: *When the just cry out, the Lord hears them.
Many are the troubles of just man, but out of them all the Lord delivers them.*

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:32 – 33, 37 - 38, 19:27 - 30

The Lord said to his disciples: “Whoever acknowledges me before men I will acknowledge before my Father in heaven. Whoever disowns me before men I will disown before my Father in heaven. Whoever loves father or mother, son or daughter, more than me is not worthy of me. He who will not take up his cross and come after me is not worthy of me.” Then it was Peter’s turn to say to him: “Here we have put everything aside to follow you. What can we expect from it?” Jesus said to them, “I give you my solemn word, in the new age when the Son of Man takes his seat upon a throne befitting his glory, you who have followed me shall likewise take your places on twelve thrones to judge the twelve tribes of Israel. Moreover, everyone who has given up home, brothers or sisters, father or mother, wife or children or property for my sake will receive many times as much and inherit everlasting life. Many who are first shall come last, and the last shall come first.”

COMMUNION HYMN: The Light of Your face, O Lord, is raised over us.
Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

COFFEE SCHEDULE: Coffee and socializing after Sunday Divine Liturgy has resumed. Please, if you can sign up for a Sunday to serve coffee, juice and cookies this would be very much appreciated. Coffee schedule sign up sheets are located in the front foyer desk and on the kitchen table. If no one signs up for serving this would be an indicator no one is interested in having coffee after Sunday Divine Liturgy and will be discontinued. Also, the parish is looking for someone to be in charge of purchasing supplies for this weekly event. If you have questions, Carl and Linda Korchynski would be able to answer them. Please, help out when you can.

S T. A'S APPEAL FOR AID TO UKRAINE

As we witness the horrors occurring throughout Ukraine many are asking, how they can help.

St. Athanasius has created the Aid for Ukraine Appeal which will continue throughout June. Anyone who wishes to donate can do so in person, using the Aid for Ukraine envelopes available at the church, or online using "Aid for Ukraine Appeal" and your envelope number in the message box. All donations will be included on your 2022 Income Tax receipt. Also, you may e-transfer, to stathandeposit@sasktel.net. Please note, if you are non-parishioner making a donation, please complete the message field stating donation to Aid to Ukraine, your complete name and address so we can mail a receipt to you at the end of the year.

As the needs of millions of refugees continues to evolve, Father Vasyl has asked that we adapt our donations to help those refugees arriving in Regina or forwarded for those in need in Ukraine and we will be working with local and provincial organizations to have those valuable dollars have the maximum impact.

*Thank You and God Bless,

SUNDAY OF ALL SAINTS

From the Fathers

When you perceive that God is chastising you, fly not to his enemies ... but to his friends, the martyrs, the saints, and those who were pleasing to him, and who have great power

St. John Chrysostom

A Christian people celebrates together in religious solemnity the memorials of the martyrs, both to encourage their being imitated and so that it can share in their merits and be aided by their prayers.

St. Augustine of Hippo

In this way is he [the true Christian] always pure for prayer. He also prays in the society of angels, as being already of angelic rank, and he is never out of their holy keeping; and though he prays alone, he has the choir of the saints standing with him.

St. Clement of Alexandria

In addition to the study and true knowledge of the Scriptures are needed a good life and pure soul and virtue in Christ, so that the mind, journeying in this path, may be able to obtain and apprehend what it desires, in so far as human nature is able to learn about God the Word. For without a pure mind and a life modeled on the saints, no one can apprehend the words of the saints.

St. Athanasius the Great

The divine Scripture likewise says that the souls of the just are in God's hand and death cannot lay hold of them. For death is rather the sleep of the saints than their death. "For they travailed in this life and shall to the end," and "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." What then, is more precious than to be in the hand of God. For God is Life and Light, and those who are in God's hand are in life and light.

CNEWA's Ukraine campaign tops $4 million

Ottawa, June 8, 2022 — The Canadian office of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) has surpassed its matching campaign of $500,000 CAD, reaching a historic $4 million within the course of 100 days. CNEWA Canada reports its national office continues to be overwhelmed by the generosity of Canadians from coast to coast.

Launched in the early weeks of February, the fundraising effort is part of an ongoing response by Canadians to help the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church respond to the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine. This comes as the full-scale Russian invasion continues into its fourth month.

"Canadians care deeply about peace and humanitarian relief," said Anna Dombrowska, Project Officer for Ukraine. "I'm continually inspired by the generosity and engagement of our Canadian donors and assure them we're expending every effort to ensure that our collective contributions are used effectively in key areas of humanitarian relief, but also spiritual support during this great time of need."

"The needs in Ukraine run deep and Canadians have stepped up and trusted us with their prayers and financial support," added Msgr. Peter Vaccari, president of CNEWA.

"We're working quickly to direct this aid to those who need it most through our partners on the ground in Ukraine as transparently and securely as possible."

Even before the invasion, CNEWA began sending aid — upwards of $1.2 million — to its local partners in Ukraine such as Ukrainian Catholic University, Caritas Ukraine and its local branches, and the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church and its eparchies, hospitals and congregations.

These church-based partners provide emergency, humanitarian and pastoral support to Ukrainians from all walks of life through activities that include care for the displaced, elderly and sick, provisions of medical supplies, food, clothing and shelter, educational programs and support of local priests.

Donations can continue to be made online at cnewa.ca or by phone at 1-866-322-4441. Cheques can be mailed to CNEWA Canada at 223 Main Street, Ottawa, ON K1S 1C4, marked "Ukraine". Tax receipts will be issued for donations of $10 or more.

Learn more about CNEWA Canada's efforts in Ukraine by visiting cnewa.ca or following the organization on Facebook (CNEWACanada).

Since late February, Canadians have surpassed all fundraising expectations and donations to CNEWA Canada for emergency relief in Ukraine, now reaching $4 million to be distributed to church-based organizations on the ground like Caritas Ukraine.

About CNEWA

An agency of the Holy See, CNEWA works for, through and with Eastern churches throughout the Middle East, Northeast Africa, India and Eastern Europe, providing pastoral and humanitarian support. Founded by Pope Pius XI in 1926, CNEWA was incorporated in Canada as a registered charity by Canada Revenue Agency in 2003. For more information, visit cnewa.ca.
