Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 4): When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the glorious news of the resurrection and cast off the ancestral condemnation, they proudly told the apostles: "Death has been plundered! Christ our God is risen, granting to the world great mercy."

Glory be to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 4): My Savior and Deliverer from the grave as God has raised out of bondage the children of earth and shattered the gates of Hades; and as Master, he Rose on the third day.

PROKIMEN (Tone 4): How great are Your works, O Lord; You have made all things in wisdom.

Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

EPISTLE: A reading from Holy Apostle Paul to the Romans (10:1-10)

Brothers and Sisters! My heart's desire, my prayer to God of the Israelites, is that they may be saved. Indeed, I can testify that they are zealous for God though their zeal is unenlightened. Unaware of God's justice and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the justice of God. Christ is the end of the law. Through him, justice comes to everyone who believes. Moses writes of the justice that comes from the law, "The one who observes the law shall live by it." But of the justice that comes from faith he says, "Do not say in your heart, 'who shall go up into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down), or 'who shall go down into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)." What is it he does say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach). For if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. Faith in the heart leads to justification, confession on the lips to salvation.

ALLELUIA VERSES: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

You have loved justice and hated iniquity.

GOSPEL: Matthew (8: 28-9:1)

At that time as Jesus approached the Gadarene boundary, he encountered two men coming out of the tombs. They were possessed by demons and were so savage that no one could travel along that road. With a sudden shriek they cried: "Why meddle with us, Son of God? Have you come to torture us before the appointed time?" Some distance away a large herd of swine was feeding. The demons kept appealing to him, "If you expel us, send us into the herd of swine." He answered, "Out with you!" At that they came forth and entered the swine. The whole herd went rushing down the bluff into the sea and were drowned. The swineherds took to their heels, and upon their arrival in the town related everything that had happened, including the story about the two possessed men. The upshot was that the entire town came out to meet Jesus. When they caught sight of him, they begged him to leave their neighbourhood. Then he reentered the boat, made the crossing, and came back to his own town.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

ATTENTION ALL TEACHERS, EDUCATORS AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS!!!

Glory be to Jesus Christ! Слава Ісусу Христу!

We are pleased to inform you that our Youth and Young Adult Office of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon is launching a new leadership program for all young people of Saskatchewan ages 14-18 called CYLA: Catholic Youth Leadership Academy. This program is based on the Salesian program called "Animating, We Learn. Educational Tools for Young Animators" (Salesian program of St. John Bosco).

CYLA Goals:

- to form young leaders who will serve our parishes, camps, and places of need.
- to evangelize and form missionary disciples who will inspire and courageously profess their faith.
- to equip young leaders with the knowledge of our Byzantine Ukrainian Catholic tradition (based on the UGCC Catechism "Christ – Our Pascha").
- to build a unique inspiring community of young people who love Christ and want to follow the footsteps of the missionary spirit of the Blessed Mother of God.

Here is the YouTube link to the CYLA : <https://youtu.be/a9DzmYe87a8>

We would like to ask you to share this wonderful initiative with your high school students or to have our CYLA program facilitators to attend a 5-10 min presentation in your school or in your classroom at the beginning of September. If you are interested in it, please contact us by email: youwitness2youth@skeparchy.org or directly by calling at 306-914-0355 (Viktoriia). ### Organization of Bishop Roborecki Branch UCBC – Then and Now

The first Executive consisted of:

Spiritual Director – Rev. Fr. Paul Sulatytsky
President – Mikita Sheremeta
Vice-President – Mike Kowbel
Secretary – John Kmetz
Recording Secretary – Mike Woytowich
Treasurer – John Kolysher
Auditors – Alex Turus and Philip Sawula
Judges – Sam Kusnaruk and Paul Matweychuk

The organizational structure has been maintained over the 90 years of the Branch's existence. The only change has been the elimination of the Judges positions. Meetings were initially conducted and recorded in Ukrainian. Notations using the English language were noted as early as 1942 but from 1992 on, the Minutes of the Regular Meetings began to be recorded entirely in English.

Meetings continue to be held monthly from September to June. Additional or special meetings are called as needed. An AGM is held each December. Meetings were originally held at the Prosvita (Hafford) Hall which was located next to St. George's Cathedral (where the present-day rectory is located). In more recent times, meetings were held in St. George's Youth Centre until 2003, when they began to be held in St. George's Cathedral basement hall.

New members were (and continue to be) initiated at regular branch meetings. Formal annual installation ceremonies to install the new branch-level executives were never the norm and this practice continues to this day.

"Memories of Father Wolodymyr Iwaszko"

A weekend celebration – July 23 & 24, 2022

Rev. Mitrat Wolodymyr Iwaszko

Man of God, Champion of Youth, Patriot of Ukraine and Canada, Visionary Богівіддана людина, душпастир молоді, патріот України і Канади, візіонер

In recent years, the Youth of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon, in cooperation with youth from Sambir, Ukraine, embarked on significant projects to honour and preserve the memory of Father Wolodymyr Iwaszko – a modest priest who left an enduring legacy of 50 years of service to God and community in Ukraine and Canada. It is now time to celebrate the success of these endeavours made possible by those inspired by his life of perseverance, leadership and guidance; and, how he led by good example.

- * -

Who was Father Iwaszko? Wolodymyr Semen Iwaszko (1908-1995) was born in Sudova Vyshnia, today a Lviv, Ukraine Oblast. He completed his high school education and theological studies in Peremyshyl, in present day Poland. Ordained a priest in 1934, Father Iwaszko served as chaplain, catechist and youth leader for a time in Sambir. In spite of difficult circumstances and dangerous times as war raged on many fronts in Ukraine, he took care of orphans and the poor; managing to inspire and organize youth in many organizations and sporting activities. This included establishing Plast – Ukrainian Youth Organization.

For his work with youth and for instilling in them a Ukrainian national consciousness, Father Wolodymyr was sent to the concentration camp, Bereza Kartuzka, where he lived in terrible conditions from the spring to the fall of 1939. When Nazi troops occupied the city of Sambir, he was one of the first to organize resistance fighters, taking an active role in the events leading up to the June 30, 1941 proclamation of Ukraine's independence.

Following experiences of the sorrows of war and refugee life in a German Displaced Persons camp, Father left for Canada in 1948. He served for a time at Pokrova of Holy Mary Church, in Winnipeg; then relocated to St. George's Church in Prince Albert, and finally, in 1953, was reassigned to Saskatoon where he served for many years at St.

George's Cathedral. Until his final days he made many contributions to the Ukrainian community - as a spiritual leader and an organizer.

Father Iwaszko believed in the power and promise of youth and worked enthusiastically to inspire in others the same principles he lived by – those of the main duties of the Plast Oath, pledging to be faithful to God, country and community; and, remembering its motto: “СКОБ” (SKOB) – Strongly (in mind and body), Beautifully (in spirit), Carefully (in notions and plans), Quickly (in thought and deed)!

- * -

What is happening now? Under the guidance of Viktoriia Marko, Director of Fr. Iwaszko Projects, Youth and Young Adult Minister, Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon, many hours were dedicated by many people to fulfill the goal of creating a lasting legacy of inspiration for the faithful for years to come.

July 23 & 24 will be a celebration of the three projects that have developed:

- 1) Presentation of the book – ‘From Sambir to Saskatoon – The Legacy of Father Wolodymyr Iwaszko For Young People Today’; a compilation of Fr. Iwaszko memoirs written at age 85, reflections by contributors from far and wide and many unique photos.
- 2) Unveiling of a brass cast image plaque of Father installed at the brama/gateway to St. Volodymyr Church.
- 3) Showing of a Video – produced by youth in Sambir, depicting Fr. Iwaszko's life and service in Ukraine and Canada.

For more information please contact:

ST. ANTHONY OF THE CAVES

Anthony of Kiev also called Anthony of the Caves (Ukrainian: Антоній Печерський, Russian: Антоний Печерский; c. 983–1073) was a monk and the founder of the monastic tradition in Kievan Rus'. Together with Theodosius of Kiev, he co-founded the Kiev Pechersk Lavra (Kiev Monastery of the Caves).

He was born in Lyubech (present-day Liubech, Ukraine) in Chernigov Principality and was baptized with the name "Antipas". He was drawn to the spiritual life from an early age and left for the Greek Orthodox Esphigmenou Monastery on Mount Athos to live as a hermit. He lived in a secluded cave there overlooking the sea, which is still shown to visitors. In circa 1011, the abbot gave Anthony the job of expanding monasticism in his native Kiev (present-day Kyiv, Ukraine), which had only recently begun its conversion to Christianity.

Anthony returned to Kiev, and found several monasteries established on the order of local princes, but these were not as austere as Anthony was used to from his time on Mount Athos.<sup>[2]</sup> He instead chose to live in a small cave which had been dug by the presbyter Hilarion.

In 1015, his peaceful austerity was interrupted by the death of Vladimir I of Kiev, and the subsequent fratricidal war for the throne between Vladimir's sons Yaroslav and Sviatopolk, and Anthony returned to Mount Athos. When the conflict ended, the abbot sent Anthony back to Kiev, prophesying that many monks would join him on his return.
