Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 6): Angelic powers were upon Your tomb and the guards became like dead men; Mary stood before Your tomb seeking Your most pure body. You captured Hades without being overcome by it. You met the Virgin and granted life. O Lord, risen from the dead, glory be to You.

Glory be to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 6): With His life-giving hand Christ our God, the Giver of life, raised all the dead from the murky abyss and bestowed resurrection upon humanity. He is for all the Savior, the resurrection and the life, and the God of all.

PROKIMEN (Tone 6): Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Holy Apostle Paul to the Romans (15: 1-7)

Brothers and Sisters! We who are strong in faith should be patient with the scruples of those whose faith is weak; we must not be selfish. Each should please his neighbour so as to do him good by building up his spirit. Thus, in accord with Scripture, Christ did not please himself: "The reproaches they uttered against you fell on me." Everything written before our time was written for our instruction, that we might derive hope from the lessons of patience and the words of encouragement in the Scriptures. May God, the source of all patience and encouragement, enable you to live in perfect harmony with one another according to the spirit of Christ Jesus, so that with one heart and voice you may glorify God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accept one another, then, as Christ accepted you, for the glory of God.

ALLELUIA VERSES: He who lives in the aid of the Most High, shall dwell under the protection of the God of heaven.

He says to the Lord: You are my protector and my refuge, my God, in Whom I hope.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9: 27-35

At that time as Jesus moved on, two blind men came after him crying out, "Son of David, have pity on us!" When he got to the house, the blind men caught up with him. Jesus said to them, "Are you confident I can do this?" "Yes, Lord," they told him. At that he touched their eyes and said, "Because of your faith it shall be done to you," and they recovered their sight. Then Jesus warned them sternly, "See to it that no one knows of this." But they went off and spread word of him through the whole area. As they were leaving, suddenly some people brought him a mute who was possessed by a demon. Once the demon was expelled the mute began to speak, to the great surprise of the crowds, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!” they exclaimed. But the Pharisees were saying, “He casts out demons through the prince of demons.” Jesus continued his tour of all the towns and villages. He taught in their synagogues, he proclaimed the good news of God’s reign, and he cured every sickness and disease.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

POPE’S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY: For the elderly.

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people, may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

June 2022 Parish Council Highlights

Hello everyone,

As a way to improve communication with all of you as St. Athanasius Parishioners we will be including a brief recap of the recent Parish Council meeting. If there is other information you would like to know about do not hesitate to contact Parish Council. Our apologies that this update was delayed as vacations slowed the process down.

Financial Update

Inquiries regarding the balance of accounts is available by contacting the Parish office.

Business Arising

- The website re development continues as Father and the developer continue working on improvements. If you, or someone you know, would be interested in joining our Livestream Team we are looking for people to help. Full training is available.
- Security Cameras – The cameras have been installed at the rectory and some of them have now been installed at the Parish Complex.

- The photo icon project for the front lobby continues to be developed with progress slowed as the artist is volunteering with the war effort.
- Restarting Coffee – we have restarted coffee after Sunday Liturgy. Please sign up to serve coffee as it can only happen with your support. There will not be coffee if no one is signed up to help.
- Support for Ukraine – The donations are noted weekly in the bulletin – your generosity is very much appreciated.
- Eparchial recommendation for Aid to Ukraine – There is about $18,000 presently to distribute for aid to Ukraine, and likely more coming in to add to this amount. Father has set up a committee to help him with the distribution of the funds. There are more organizations set up now to aid Ukraine as options. Another option can be to help refugees that are coming here to Saskatchewan. Father will be contacting parishioners to help him in the near future so please offer to help if you can.
- Mask Policy – while the Provincial mandates have expired, St. Athanasius will continue to encourage mask wearing while entering the Parish and during Liturgy however they are not required. Please respect everyone's choice regarding masks.
- Seminarian – The Eparchy notified St. Athanasius and St. Basils that Regina will be home to a Seminarian and his family for a year starting this sometime this summer. While there will be some financial costs to our Parish - $300 per month – he will be able to assist with our Parish needs as well.
- Tabulators – Thank You to everyone who has signed up as a Tabulator. If you are interested in helping the Parish in this way, please contact the office or Rosanne Miller.
- Photo Directory - St. Athanasius will be doing a new Photo Directory – the first in 10 years! The dates will be Sept. 30th to Oct. 1st and Oct. 31st (during the day only) to Nov. 2nd. Please watch the bulletin for updates and more information in the coming weeks.
- The Eparchial Appeal is now closed for 2022. The goal was $250,000 for the Eparchy, our parish goal was $14,000. While St. A's fell short of our goal, for the first time since the beginning of the Appeal, Parish Council would like to thank everyone for their kind support.

Other News and Business

New Business

- Rectory – the spring melt resulted in water seeping into the basement of the rectory. During Father's vacation a work bee was organized to redo the landscaping at the back of the house to ensure proper drainage. Thank You to all who did the work. Also, if anyone has a used couch / sectional they no longer are using the Rectory could use a different one in the basement. Your donation would be appreciated.

- Lawn Care – Matthew Markewich will again be doing the grass cutting at the rectory and church complex.
- Syro Malabar and Huda School contracts were renewed for another year. These contracts do relieve some of the financial pressure faced by the Parish.

Thanks for your continued support.

St. Athanasius Parish Council

Thank you to Walter Brigidear, Joe Hladky, Carl Korchynski, Len Markewich, Cliff Rakochy, Henry Stadnyk and Craig Offet (my neighbour) who gave many hours of labour and use of their equipment to landscape the backyard to provide water drainage away from the house and repair the fence at the rectory. CYLA Goals:

- to equip young leaders with the knowledge of our Byzantine Ukrainian Catholic tradition (based on the UGCC Catechism "Christ – Our Pascha").
- to build a unique inspiring community of young people who love Christ and want to follow the footsteps of the missionary spirit of the Blessed Mother of God.

Here is the YouTube link to the CYLA : <https://youtu.be/a9DzmYe87a8>

Do Not Forget Hospitality

Since those with whom Truth was walking couldn't be alien to charity, they invited Him, a stranger, to be their guest.

They set the table, brought food, and recognized in the breaking of the bread the God they did not know as He explained the sacred scriptures. They were not enlightened by hearing God's commandments, but by their own actions, for it is written: "It is not hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but doers of the law will be made righteous" (Rom 2:13). Let anyone who wishes to understand what he has heard be quick to fulfill in action what he has already been able to understand. The Lord was not recognized when He was speaking, but He deigned to be recognized as He was being fed.

Dearly beloved, love hospitality, love the works of charity. Paul said: "Let the charity of the brotherhood remain, and do not forget hospitality" (Heb 13:1-2).

You know that when He comes in judgment He will say, "What you did to one of these, my least ones, you did for me" (Matt 25:40). You know that before the judgment, when He is received in His members, He is Himself searching for those who will receive Him. And yet we are disinclined to offer the gift of hospitality. Consider, my friends, how great the virtue of hospitality is. Receive Christ at your tables so that you can be received by Him at the eternal banquet. Offer hospitality now to Christ the stranger, that at the judgment you may not be a stranger, unknown to Him, but may be received into His kingdom as one of His own.
