Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
- Post-feast of Dormition of the Mother of God

TROPAR (Tone 2): When You went down to death, O Life Immortal, You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. When You raised the dead from the nether world, all the powers of heaven cried out: “O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

FEASTDAY TROPAR (Tone 1): O Mother of God, in giving birth you still preserved virginity; and in your falling asleep you did not forsake the world. You are the Mother of Life and have been transferred to life, and through your prayers have delivered our souls from death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 2): You rose from the tomb, O almighty Savior; and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose. Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults. And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

PROKIMEN (Tone 2): The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

Verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (9:2-12)

Brothers and Sisters! You are the very seal of my apostolate in the Lord. My defense against those who criticize me is this: Do we not have the right to eat and drink? Do we not have the right to marry a believing woman like the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? Is it only myself and Barnabas who are forced to work for a living? What soldier in the field pays for his rations? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its yield? What shepherd does not nourish himself with the milk of his flock? You may think the reasons I am giving are merely human ones, but does not the law itself speak of these things? It is written in the law of Moses, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out grain.” Is God concerned here for oxen, or does he not rather say this for our sakes? You can be sure it was written for us, for the plowman should plow in hope and the harvester expect a share in the grain. If we have sown for you in the spirit, is it too much to expect a material harvest from you? If others have this right over you, is not our right even greater? But we have not used this right. On the contrary, we put up with all sorts of hardships so as not to place any obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ.

ALLELUIA VERSES: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

Lord, grant victory to the king, and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

GOSPEL: Matthew 18: 23-35

The Lord said: “The reign of God may be said to be like a king who decided to settle accounts with his officials. When he began his auditing, one was brought in who owed him a huge amount. As he had no way of paying it, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that the official prostrated himself in homage and said, ‘My lord, be patient with me and I will pay you back in full.’ Moved with pity, the master let the official go and wrote off the debt. But when that same official went out he met a fellow servant who owed him a mere fraction of what he himself owed. He seized him and throttled him, ‘Pay back what you owe,’ he demanded. His fellow servant dropped to his knees and began to plead with him, ‘Just give me time and I will pay you back in full.’ But he would hear none of it. Instead, he had him put in jail until he paid back what he owed. When his fellow servants saw what had happened they were badly shaken, and went to their master to report the whole incident. His master sent for him and said, ‘You worthless wretch! I canceled your entire debt when you pleaded with me. Should you not have dealt mercifully with your fellow servant, as I dealt with you?’ Then in anger the master handed him over to the torturers until he paid back all that he owed. My heavenly father will treat you in exactly the same way unless each of you forgives his brother from his heart.”

INSTEAD OF ‘It Is Truly Right’: Seeing the Dormition of the Most Pure One, the angels were filled with awe at how the Virgin went from earth to heaven. In you, O pure Virgin, the laws of nature were overcome: in giving birth you remained a virgin, and in your death, heralded life. You remained a virgin after giving birth and remained alive after death, always saving your descendants, O Mother of God.

COMMUNION HYMN: I will take the chalice of salvation; and I will call upon the name of the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

AGES 14 - 18

August 24th is Ukrainian Independence Day, a day when the Ukrainian community across Canada traditionally gathers to celebrate. This year, with Russia's ongoing genocidal war against Ukraine, it is especially important for Ukrainians in Canada to mark this day. This is a time to pay tribute to the courage and valour of the Ukrainian people in defence of their freedom.

UKRAINIAN INDEPENDENCE DAY – WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24TH, 2022, 6:00 p.m.
REGINA at the UNF HALL, 1737 St. John St., Regina, SK.

In Praise of the Theotokos

Hail Mary, Mother of God, through whom the faithful spirits are saved. Hail Mary, Mother of God, through you the waves of the sea, now placated and calm, carry joyfully and gently those who, like our-selves, are servants and ministers.

Hail Mary, Mother of God, most venerated treasure on all earth, inextinguishable light, crown of virginity, scepter of true doctrine, indestructible temple, dwelling place of Him who cannot be contained, Virgin and Mother, through whom we have been given Him who is called blessed par excellence, and who has come in the name of the Father.

Hail to you, who in your holy and virginal womb have enclosed the immense and the incomprehensible. Because of whom the Blessed Trinity is adored and glorified, and the precious Cross is venerated and feted throughout the earth. Because of whom heaven exults, the angels and archangels rejoice, and the devils flee. Because of whom the tempter was ejected from heaven, and fallen creature was taken up to paradise. Because of whom all men, fettered by the deceit of idols, come to the knowledge of truth. Because of whom holy baptism is given as a gift to believers, the oil of joy is obtained, the Church is rooted all over the world, and people are moved to penance. And what more can I say? Because of whom the only begotten Son of God shone the light on those who walked in darkness and in the shadow of death.

Because of whom the prophets prophesied future events. Because of whom the apostles preached salvation to the Gentiles. Because of whom the dead rose and kings reigned, through the Blessed Trinity.

Who among men is capable of uttering the praise which Mary merits, who is worthy of all praise? She is Virgin and Mother. What a marvelous thing. I am filled with awe at this miracle. Who has heard of a case where the builder of a temple is banned from attending it? Who could be blamed for ignominiously having taken His own slave to be His Mother?
