Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

TWENTY – THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 6): Angelic powers were upon Your tomb and the guards became like dead men; Mary stood before Your tomb seeking Your most pure body. You captured Hades without being overcome by it. You met the Virgin and granted life. O Lord, risen from the dead, glory be to You.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 6): With His life-giving hand Christ our God, the Giver of life, raised all the dead from the murky abyss and bestowed resurrection upon humanity. He is for all the Savior, the resurrection and the life, and the God of all.

PROKIMEN (Tone 6): Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Verse: Unto You I will cry, O Lord my God, lest You turn from me in silence.

EPISTLE: A reading from the letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians.
(2: 4 - 10)

Brothers and Sisters! God is rich in mercy; because of his great love for us he brought us to life with Christ when we were dead in sin. By this favor you were saved. Both with and in Christ Jesus he raised us up and gave us a place in the heavens, that in ages to come he might display his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. I repeat, it is owing to his favor that salvation is yours through faith. This is not your own doing, it is God's gift; neither is it a reward for anything you have accomplished, so let no one pride himself on it. We are truly his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to lead the life of good deeds which God prepared for us in advance.

ALLELUIA VERSES: He who lives in the aid of the Most High, shall dwell under the protection of the God of heaven.

He says to the Lord: You are my protector and my refuge, my God, in Whom I hope.

GOSPEL: Luke 8: 26-39

At that time, Jesus came into the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. When he came to land, he was met by a man from the town who was possessed by demons. For a long time he had not worn any clothes, he did not live in a house, but among the tombstones. On seeing Jesus he began to shriek; then he fell at his feet and exclaimed at the top of his voice, "Jesus, Son of God Most High, why do you meddle with me? Do not torment me, I beg you." By now Jesus was ordering the unclean spirit to come out of the man, This spirit had taken hold of him many a time. The man used to be tied with chains and fetters, but he would break his bonds and the demon would drive him into places of solitude. "What is your name?" Jesus demanded. "Legion," he answered, because the demons who had entered him were many. They pleaded with him not to order them back to the abyss. It happened that a large herd of swine was feeding nearby on the hillside, and the demons asked him to permit them to enter the swine. This he granted. The demons then came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd charged down the bluff into the lake, where they drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they took to their heels and brought the news to the town and country roundabout. The people went out to see for themselves what had happened. Coming on Jesus, they found the man from whom the devils had departed sitting at his feet dressed and in his full senses; this sight terrified them. They were told by witnesses how the possessed man had been cured. Shortly afterward, the entire population of the Gerasene territory asked Jesus to leave their neighborhood, for a great fear had seized them; so he got into the boat and went back across the lake. The man from whom the devils had departed asked to come with him, but he sent him away with the words, "Go back home and recount all that God has done for you." The man went all through the town making public what Jesus had done for him.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

POPE's PRAYER INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER: For Children Who Suffer.

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

NOVEMBER FOOD BANK ITEM – Canned Vegetables

HELP TO UKRAINIANS ARRIVING IN REGINA: St. Athanasius Social Justice Committee want to hear from the Ukrainian Refugees who have arrived in Regina. The front desk at the church are envelopes addressed to Ukrainian Refugees. Inside of the envelope is a form to be completed with the items you may need such as clothing, household items, food etc. Once you have completed the form, please place your sealed envelope in the basket or give to Father Vasyl and the Social Justice Committee will be in contact with you. All forms completed will remain confidential.

UKRAINIAN newcomer to Regina is looking for part-time work (few hours per day) in order to support her three children. If you are interested to help her to find employment, please contact Fr. Vasyl at 306-519-9030.

COFFEE SCHEDULE: Please continue to sign up to serve coffee, juice and cookies after Sunday Divine Liturgy. If no one has signed the schedule sheet for a Sunday, NO coffee or socializing will be happening. Coffee sign up sheets are located in the front desk and on the kitchen counter. If no one signs up for serving this would be an indicator no one is interested in having coffee after Sunday Divine Liturgy and will be discontinued.

For more information regarding this event, please refer to the poster on the bulletin board in the St. A's auditorium.

Looking for Christmas gift ideas? Here are two...

Idea #1: Buy a book of national and international interest! The recently released "From Sambir to Saskatoon: the Legacy of Fr. Wolodymyr Iwaszko for Young People Today" is a bilingual, 292 page collection of archive photos and stories about the life, in Ukraine and Canada, of Father Iwaszko - a modest priest who left an enduring legacy of selfless service to God, country, Past Ukrainian youth organization, and community. The book includes Father's memoirs which he wrote prior to his passing.

From Sambir to Saskatoon is available for the purchase price of $40.00 at these Saskatoon locations: Musée Ukraina Museum and Smak Ukrainian Store; or by ordering online by scanning the QR code.

Idea #2: Consider making a donation to the Fr. Iwaszko plaque project in your name, or in honour of a loved one. The plaque, unveiled this past summer at St. Volodymyr Eparchial Park, is a tribute to Fr. Iwaszko's dedication to his community and his vision to have a place where families could spend time outdoors... especially for camping purposes.

Please forward donations by December 31, 2022. Cheques payable to 'Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Saskatoon' should be mailed to: Chancery Office – 214 Ave M S, Saskatoon, SK S7M 2K4. Indicate 'Fr Iwaszko plaque (or book) project' in the memo. A charity receipt will follow.

More information about these projects can be found on Facebook; search 'From Sambir to Saskatoon' or contact Viktoriia Marko at uwitness2youth@skeparchy.org

Eternal God, You gather the separate into one and make the bond of love unbreakable. You blessed Isaac and Rebecca and marked them as heirs of Your promise. Bless also these servants of Yours and guide them in good works of every kind. For You are a merciful and man-befriending God, and we send up glory to You, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Icon of Saint John Chrysostom – November 13th

Reflection on the Good Samaritan

First, we must pity the ill fortune of the man who fell unarmed and helpless among robbers, and who was so rash and unwise as to choose the road in which he could not escape the attack of robbers. For the unarmed can never escape the armed, the heedless the villain, the unwary the malicious. Since malice is ever armed with guile, fenced round with cruelty, fortified with deceit, and ready for fierce attack. ..

He poured in wine, that is, the blood of His passion, and oil, that is, the anointing of the chrism, that pardon might be granted by His blood, sanctification be conferred by the chrism ...

The wounded parts are bound up by the heavenly Physician, and containing a salve within themselves, are by the working of the remedy restored to their former soundness. Having poured in wine and oil, he placed him upon His beast ...

For the Inn is the Church, which receives travelers, who are tired with their journey through the world, and oppressed with the load of their sins; where the wearied traveler casting down the burden of his sins is relieved, and after being refreshed is restored with wholesome food. And this is what is here said, and took care of him. For outside is everything that is conflicting, hurtful and evil, while within the Inn is contained all rest and health ...

He said, if you see anyone oppressed, say not surely he is wicked; but be he Gentile or Jew and need help, dispute not, he has a claim to your assistance, into whatever evil he has fallen.

St. John Chrysostom
