SUNDAY OF THE HOLY FATHERS OF THE First ECUMENICAL COUNCIL
- Post-feast of Ascension

FIRST ANTIPHON: All you peoples, clap your hands; shout to God with cries of gladness!
Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.
For the Lord, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth.
Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.
He brings people under us; nations under our feet.
Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.
The Lord mounts his throne amid shouts of joy; the Lord amid trumpet blasts.
Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Savior, save us.
Glory be . . . now and forever . . . : Only Begotten Son . . . .

POST-FESTIVE THIRD ANTIPHON: Regular 3rd Antiphon but with the following response: Son of God, who ascended in glory, save us who sing to You: Alleluia!

TROPAR (Tone 6): Angelic powers were upon Your tomb and the guards became like dead men; Mary stood before Your tomb seeking Your most pure body. You captured Hades without being overcome by it. You met the Virgin and granted life. O Lord, risen from the dead, glory be to You.

TROPAR OF THE ASCENSION (Tone 4): You ascended in glory, O Christ our God; You delighted the disciples with the promise of the Holy Spirit. Through this blessing they were assured that You are the Son of God, the Redeemer of the world.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK OF THE HOLY FATHERS (Tone 8): The preaching of the apostles and the decisions of the Fathers have established the true faith of the Church which she wears as the garment of truth fashioned from the theology on high. She justly governs and glorifies the great mystery of worship.

PROKIMEN (Tone 4): Blessed are you, and praiseworthy, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and glorious forever is your name.

VERSE: For you are just in all you have done.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (20: 16-18, 28-36)

In those days Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so as not to lose time in Asia, for he was eager to get to Jerusalem by the feast of Pentecost if at all possible. Paul sent word from Miletus to Ephesus, summoning the presbyters of that church. When they came to him, he delivered this address: "Keep watch over yourselves, and over the whole flock the Holy Spirit has given you to guard. Shepherd the church of God, which he has acquired at the price of his own blood. I know that when I am gone, savage wolves will come among you who will not spare the flock. From your own number, men will present themselves distorting the truth and leading astray any who follow them. Be on guard, therefore. Do not forget that for three years, night and day, I never ceased warning you individually even to the point of tears. I commend you now to the Lord, and to that gracious word of his which can enlarge you, and give you a share among all who are consecrated to him. Never did I set my heart on anyone's silver or gold or envy the way he dressed. You yourselves know that these hands of mine have served both my needs and those of my companions. I have always pointed out to you that is by such hard work that you must help the weak. You need to recall the words of the Lord Jesus himself, who said: 'There is more happiness in giving than receiving.' "

ALLELUIA VERSES: The Lord, God of gods, speaks, he summons the earth from east to west.

Assemble my faithful before me who sealed my covenant by sacrifice.

GOSPEL: John 17:1 - 13

At that time Jesus looked up to heaven and said: "Father, the hour has come! Give glory to your Son that your Son may give glory to you, inasmuch as you have given him authority over all mankind, that he may bestow eternal life on those you gave him. Eternal life is this, to know you, the only true God, and him whom you have sent, Jesus Christ. I have given you glory on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do. Do you now, Father, give me glory at your side, a glory I had with you before the world began. I have made your name known to those you gave me out of the world. These men you gave me were yours; they have kept your word. Now they realize that all that you gave me comes from you. I entrusted to them the message you entrusted to me. They have known that in truth I came from you, they have believed it was you who sent me. For these I pray -- not for the world but for these you have given me, for they are really yours. Just as all that belongs to me is yours, so all that belongs to you is mine. It is in them that I have been glorified. I am in the world no more, but these are in the world as I come to you. O Father most holy, protect them with your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. As long as I was with them, I guarded them with your name which you gave me. I kept careful watch, and not one of them was lost, none but him who was destined to be lost -- in fulfillment of Scripture. Now, however, I come to you; I say all this while I am still in the world that they may share my joy completely."

INSTEAD OF 'It is truly right...': O my soul, extol the Lord who in glory ascended bodily into heaven. O Mother of God, who in a manner beyond understanding and beyond words gave birth in time to Him whom time cannot contain, we the faithful magnify you with one accord.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

INSTEAD OF 'We have seen the true light...'and 'May our mouths be filled...': Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; above all the earth be your glory.

FOOD BOXES FOR UKRAINE

In response to the enormous food shortage in Ukrainian regions under occupation and military threats in 2022, the Patriarchal Curia of the UGCC launched an emergency project providing food to those in need. 98,445 food boxes were distributed to 225,000 people in 2022.

2023 ANNUAL EPARCHIAL APPEAL

“Let Us Share the Gifts that We have been Given”

THANK YOU, for your continued and generous support of the 2023 Annual Eparchial Appeal. Your contribution will be making a significant difference and serves as a powerful witness of our God's love and mercy. Your gifts are allocated towards religious education programs, clergy support and education, communication services and Chancery office support. If you have not yet made your pledge, please prayerfully consider donating a one-time gift, or a pledge spread over several months. Please join us, your Ukrainian Catholic community, as we combine our gifts to God's hidden treasure of faith.

Today we will feature the Chancery Office support, one of the initiatives funded by the 2023 Annual Eparchial Appeal. Over the past number of years, the Eparchy's sources of revenues have either decreased or have been eliminated. The amount of Cathedralricum revenue, which is based on Sunday collections at Parish churches, has decreased because membership in our Eparchy has been steadily decreasing over the years which has resulted lower attendance at Sunday Liturgies. In addition, post-COVID attendance has not come back to the pre-COVID levels. The grant funding that the Eparchy enjoyed in previous years from various organizations, like the Catholic Missions in Canada, have also been decreased. The Eparchy has been served notice that future grant funds may not even be available. Therefore, the Eparchy must now seek other sources of revenue to ensure the continuation and sustainability of programs and services such as Covenant of Care, management of Eparchial archives, managing the inventory of sacred items and much more. Donations to the Annual Eparchial Appeal is one way the Faithful of the Eparchy can help.

In Matthew 25:14-30, Jesus told His listeners a parable about a wealthy man who left three servants in charge of substantial sums of money. To each one, he gave the instruction, "Put this money to work until I come back". This important parable illustrates the value God places on stewarding properly and faithfully the resources that He gives those who trust in Him. We, like the servants, have been entrusted with substantial resources, and have been instructed to "put this to work until I come back." Please join us, your Ukrainian Catholic community, as we combine our gifts to God's hidden treasure of faith.

Did you know that there is more than one way to give to the Annual Eparchial Appeal? You can:

- ✓ Make a one-time gift.
- ✓ Make a pledge and spread out your pledge over 12 (or less) monthly payments.
- ✓ Have your donation matched by your company with a Corporate Matching Gift
- ✓ Online donations using the QR code which links directly to the UCFSask website.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the Eparchial Appeal or the Foundation itself, please contact the Foundation Office at 306-653-0138, ext 223.

ST. ATHANASIUS PARISHIONERS: 2023 Eparchial Appeal envelope donations have been mailed to you. These envelopes are to be directed to the Eparchy in Saskatoon. The envelopes are stamped postage paid, therefore you can take your return envelope to the post office or a stand up mail box without bringing it to the parish. If you cannot make it to the post office and choose to drop it off at the parish, please make sure your envelope is sealed with or without a donation. Thank you for cooperation.

SUNDAY OF THE HOLY FATHERS

Icon of the Fathers of the First Ecumenical Councils

The Works the Father Gave Jesus to Accomplish

Those who believe in one God the Father Almighty ought to believe in His only-begotten Son. Jesus says: "I am the door. No one can come to the Father but by me" (Jn 10: 9; 14: 6).

Anyone who does not accept the door cannot possibly reach the Father. Anyone who wishes to pray to the Father should adore the Son, or his prayer is not accepted. The Son is called Christ, which means anointed, that is, consecrated. He was not anointed by human hands but consecrated by the Father to become a priest forever. He died, but He did not remain, as all human beings do, in the underworld. He is the only one free among the dead.

The Savior becomes all things to all, according to the need of each: to those who ask for joy, He becomes the vine; to those who wish to enter, He becomes the door; to those who are under the weight of sin, He becomes a lamb, a lamb slain for them. He becomes all things to all, but He remains nonetheless what He is. He is called by a twofold name: Jesus because He gives us salvation, and Christ because He is priest.

He is the healer of bodies and the doctor of souls. As He made whole those who were physically blind, so He gave light to their minds. As He gave the lame the chance to walk, so He urges the steps of sinners in the direction of the way of penitence.
