TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

FIRST ANTIPHON: Shout to the Lord, all the earth, sing to His name, give glory to His praise.
Through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Saviour save us.

Your thunder resounded in the whirlwind; your lightning illumined the world; the earth quivered and quaked.

Through the prayers ...

You are clothes with majesty and glory, robed in light as with a cloak.

Through the prayers ...

Glory be to the Father Only Begotten Son ... (Page 23)

THIRD ANTIPHON: They who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which is immovable; which forever stands.

You were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ our God, revealing as much of your glory to your disciples as they could behold. Through the prayers of the Mother of God, let your everlasting light also shine upon us sinners. O Giver of Light, glory be to You!

Mountains are round about Jerusalem; so the Lord is round about his people, both now and forever.

You were transfigured on the mountain ...

O Lord, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy mountain?

You were transfigured on the mountain ...

Who can ascent the mountain of the Lord, or who may stand in his holy place?

You were transfigured on the mountain ...

LITTLE ENTRANCE: O Lord, send forth your light and your fidelity; they shall lead me on and bring me to your holy mountain.

TROPAR: You were transfigured ...

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever.
Amen.

KONDAK (Tone 7): You were transfigured on the mountain, O Christ our God, and your disciples beheld as much as they could of your glory, so that when they would see You crucified, they would understand that You suffered willingly; and they would preach to the world that You are truly the reflection of the Father.

PROKIMEN (Tone 4): How manifold are your works, O Lord! In wisdom You have wrought them all.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord, my God, you are great indeed!

EPISTLE: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Peter (1:10-19)

Brothers and Sisters! Be solicitous to make your call and election permanent; surely those who do so will never be lost. On the contrary, your entry into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will be richly provided for. I intend to recall these things to you constantly, even though you already understand and are firmly rooted in the truth you possess. I consider it my duty, as long as I live, to prompt you with this reminder. I know, by the indications our Lord Jesus Christ has given me, how close is the day when I must fold my tent. I shall press to have you recall these things frequently after my departure. It was not by way of cleverly concocted myths that we taught you about the coming in power of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we were eyewitnesses of his sovereign majesty. He received glory and praise from God the Father when that unique declaration came to him out of the majestic splendor. "This is my beloved Son, on whom my favour rests." We ourselves heard this said from heaven while we were in his company on the holy mountain. Besides, we possess the prophetic message as something altogether reliable. Keep your attention closely fixed on it, as you would on a lamp shining in a dark place until the first streaks of dawn appear and the morning star rises in your hearts.

ALLELUIA VERSES: Yours are the heavens, and yours is the earth.

Happy the people who know the joyful shout.

GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9

At that time Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. He was transfigured before their eyes. His face became as dazzling as the sun, his clothes as radiant as light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, how good that we are here! With your permission I will erect three booths here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He was still peaking when suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them. Out of the cloud came a voice which said, "This is my beloved Son on whom my favour rests. Listen to Him." When they heard this the disciples fell forward on the ground, overcome with fear. Jesus came toward them and laying his hand on them, said, "Get up! Do not be afraid!" When they looked up they did not see anyone but Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Do not tell anyone of the vision until the Son of Man rises from the dead."

INSTEAD OF "IT IS TRULY RIGHT ..." O my should, extol the Lord transfigured on Mount Tabor. You gave birth without blemish; for it was God who came forth from your womb, appearing the flesh upon the earth, and dwelling among us. Therefore, O Mother of God, we all extol you.

COMMUNION HYMN: O Lord, in the light of your countenance, we walk; at your name we rejoice all the day. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

August 6 – Transfiguration of Our Lord

In the Synoptic Gospels, (Matthew, Mark, Luke), the account of the transfiguration happens towards the middle of the narrative. It is a key episode and almost immediately follows another important element, the Confession of Peter: "you are the Christ" (Matthew 16:16, Mark 8:29, Luke 9:20). The transfiguration narrative acts as a further revelation of the identity of Jesus as the Son of God to some of his disciples.

In the gospels, Jesus takes Peter; James, son of Zebedee; and James' brother John the Apostle with him and goes up to a mountain, which is not named. Once on the mountain, Matthew states that Jesus "was transfigured before them; his face shining as the sun, and his garments became white as the light." At that point the prophet Elijah representing the prophets and Moses representing the Law appear and Jesus begins to talk to them. Luke states that they spoke of Jesus' exodus which he was about to accomplish in Jerusalem. Luke is also specific in describing Jesus in a state of glory, with Luke referring to "they saw His glory".

Just as Elijah and Moses begin to depart from the scene, Peter begins to ask Jesus if the disciples should make three tents for him and the two prophets. This has been interpreted as Peter's attempt to keep the prophets there longer. But before Peter can finish, a bright cloud appears, and a voice from the cloud states: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him". The disciples then fall to the ground in fear, but Jesus approaches and touches them, telling them not to be afraid. When the disciples look up, they no longer see Elijah or Moses.

When Jesus and the three apostles are walking down the mountain, Jesus tells them to not tell anyone "the things they had seen" until the "Son of Man" has risen from the dead. The apostles are described as questioning among themselves as to what Jesus meant by "risen from the dead".
