TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
- Post-feast Of Dormition of The Mother Of God

TROPAR (Tone 3): Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice, for the Lord has done a mighty deed with His arm. He trampled death by death; He became the first born of the dead; He saved us from the abyss of Hades and granted great mercy to the world.

FESTIVE TROPAR (Tone 1): O Mother of God, in giving birth you still preserved virginity; and in your falling asleep you did not forsake the world. You are the Mother of Life and have been transferred to life, and through your prayers have delivered our souls from death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 3): You rose from the tomb, O compassionate Lord, and led us out from the gates of death. Today Adam exults and Eve rejoices, and the prophets together with the patriarchs unceasingly acclaim the divine might of Your power.

PROKIMEN (Tone 3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

Verse: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout unto God with the voice of joy.

EPISTLE: A reading from the First Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (15: 1-11)

Brothers and Sisters! I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and in which you stand firm. You are being saved by it at this very moment if you hold fast to it as I preached it to you. Otherwise you have believed in vain. I handed on to you first of all what I myself received that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried and, in accordance with the Scriptures, rose on the third day; that he was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve. After that he was seen by five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still alive, although some have fallen asleep. Next he was seen by James; then by all the apostles. Last of all he was seen by me, as one born out of the normal course. I am the least of the apostles; in fact, because I persecuted the church of God, I do not even deserve the name. But by God's favor I am what I am. This favor of his to me has not proved fruitless. Indeed, I have worked harder than all the others, not on my own but through the favor of God. In any case, whether it be I or they, this is what we preach and this is what you believed.

ALLELUIA VERSES: In You, O Lord, have I hoped that I may not be put to shame for ever.

Be a protector unto me, O God, and a house of refuge to save me.

GOSPEL: Matthew 19: 16-26

At that time a young man came up to him and said, "Teacher, what good must I do to possess everlasting life?" He answered, "Why do you question me about what is good?"

There is One who is good. If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments.” “Which ones?” he asked. Jesus replied, “ ‘You shall not kill’; ‘You shall not commit adultery’; ‘You shall not steal’; ‘You shall not bear false witness’; ‘Honor your father and your mother’; and ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’ ”The young man said to him, “I have kept all these; what do I need to do further?” Jesus told him, “If you seek perfection, go, sell your possessions, and give to the poor. You will then have treasure in heaven. Afterward, come back and follow me.” Hearing these words, the young man went away sad, for his possessions were many. Jesus said to his disciples, “I assure you, only with difficulty will a rich man enter into the kingdom of God. I repeat what I said: it is easier for a camel to pass through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” When the disciples heard this they were completely overwhelmed, and exclaimed, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For man it is impossible; but for God all things are possible.”

INSTEAD OF “IT IS TRULY RIGHT ...”: Seeing the Dormition of the Most Pure One, the angels were filled with awe at how the Virgin went from earth to heaven. In you, O pure Virgin, the laws of nature were overcome: in giving birth you remained a virgin, and in your death, heralded life. You remained a virgin after giving birth and remained alive after death, always saving your descendants, O Mother of God.

COMMUNION HYMN: I will take the chalice of salvation; and I will call upon the name of the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Celebrate with the Most Exalted Praised

Now Mary has her proper habitation in Heaven, into which today she is translated from earth, for Heaven is a most fitting place for her.

She stands at the right side of the Almighty "adorned in golden robes, arrayed in diverse colors" (Ps. 44 [45]: 9-10), as the Prophet-King David said of her. Beneath the golden robes, her divinely radiant body is arrayed with the diverse colors of all virtues. She alone, in her body glorified by God, enjoys the celestial habitations with her Son. The earth, the grave and death could not hold forever her life-originating and God-receiving body - a dwelling place more radiant than Heaven and the habitation of the heavens.

Therefore, the body which gave birth, is glorified together with the One Who is born, with glory befitting God, and it is raised together. The "Ark of Holiness" (Ps.131 [132]: 8) is resurrected together with Christ, Who arose on the third day, as expressed in prophetic song. There was, moreover, the evidence for the Apostles of her resurrection from the dead: the shroud and burial cloths, which remained in the grave, and which alone were found there by those who came to look things over: just as it had been with her Son and Lord. It was unnecessary that she should wait a certain while upon the earth, as had her Son and God; and therefore, she was taken directly from the grave into a celestial habitation, from whence she shines with a resplendent radiance, illuminating all the earth. For the faithful, this is something worthy of veneration, worthy of praise and of song In this way, she was at the start, "a little lower than the angels" (Ps. 8:6) in her mortality, but this only served to the increase the majesty of the Mother of God. Therefore, it is entirely proper that everyone gather today and commune for the present Feast.
