THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 4): When the disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the glorious news of the resurrection and cast off the ancestral condemnation, they proudly told the apostles: "Death has been plundered! Christ our God is risen granting to the world great mercy."

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 4): My Saviour and Deliverer from the grave as God has raised out of bondage the children of earth and shattered the gates of Hades; and as Master, He rose on the third day.

PROKIMEN (Tone 4): How great are Your works, O Lord: You have made all things in wisdom.

Verse: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, You are exceedingly great.

EPISTLE: A reading from the First Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (16: 13-24)

Brothers and Sisters! Be on your guard, stand firm in the faith, and act like men. In a word, be strong. Do everything with love. You know that the household of Stephanas is the first fruits of Achaia and is devoted to the service of the saints. I urge you to serve under such men and under everyone who cooperates and toils with them. I was very happy at the arrival of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because they made up for your absence. They have refreshed my spirit as they did yours. You should recognize the worth of such men. The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the assembly that meets in their house, send you cordial greetings in the Lord. All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. It is I, Paul, who send you this greeting in my own hand. If anyone does not love the Lord, let a curse be upon him. O Lord, Come! The favour of the Lord Jesus be with you. My love to all of you in Christ Jesus.

ALLELUIA VERSES: Poise yourself and advance in triumph and reign in the cause of truth, and meekness, and justice.

You have loved justice and hated iniquity.

GOSPEL: Matthew 21: 33-42

At that time the Lord told this parable: "There was a property owner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug out a vat, and erected a tower. Then he leased it out to tenant farmers and went on a journey. When vintage time arrived he dispatched his slaves to the tenants to obtain his share of the grapes. The tenants responded by seizing the slaves. They beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. A second time he dispatched even more slaves than before, but they treated them the same way. Finally he sent his son to them thinking, 'They will respect my son.' When they saw the son, the tenants said to one another, 'Here is the one who will inherit everything. Let us kill him and then we shall have his inheritance!' With that they seized him, dragged him outside the vineyard, and killed him. What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do to those tenants when he comes?" They replied, "He will bring the wicked crowd to a bad end and lease his vineyard out to others who will see to it that he has grapes at vintage time." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected has become the keystone of the structure. It was the Lord who did this and we find it marvelous to behold?' "

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

SCAM

Please be advised of a scam that some people from our parish maybe receiving as if from the priest.

How to recognize this is a scam? Here are some tips:

1. My only email is vasylytymishak@gmail.com, If you receive an email like the one below (in red), please flag it as spam for your filter or delete it. Please do not click on any links. The email sender may say "Fr.Vasyl Tymishak" but if you hover on the email address it shows: eexecutive981@gmail.com Or so..... these are not my emails.
2. All emails I always start with a (seasonal) Christian Ukrainian Catholic Greetings or initials of these greeting which are well known to all Ukrainian Catholics.
3. I never ask favors like to manage discreetly things for me while I am in meetings, transfer money for gas, grocery or similar via emails.
4. When you are not sure if an email comes from me, please call me by phone.

Thank you!

God bless,

Fr.Vasyl

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
Thirteenth Sunday of Matthew

Icon of Parable of the Tenants and the Vineyard

Vines in the Vineyard

You need only to look at the vine to be reminded of your own nature, that is, if you observe it intelligently. No doubt you remember the image used by the Lord in which He says that He is the vine and the Father the vinedresser. Each of us who has been grafted onto the Church by faith He calls branches, and He urges us to bear much fruit so as not to be rejected as useless and thrown onto the fire.

Throughout the Scriptures the Lord continually likens human souls to vines. Clearly it is human souls that He calls His vineyard, and the hedge He has put round them is the security of His commandments and the protection of the angels; for the angel of the Lord will encamp around those who fear him. Moreover, by establishing in the Church apostles in the first place, prophets in the second, and teachers in the third, He has surrounded us as though by a firmly planted fortification.

He also requires that we allow ourselves to be weeded. To be spiritually weeded means to have renounced the worldly ambitions that burdened our hearts. Anyone who has renounced the love of material things and attachment to possessions, or who has come to regard as despicable and deserving of contempt the poor, wretched glory of this world, is like a weeded vine. Freed from the profitless burden of earthly aspirations, that person can breathe again.

St. Basil the Great
