Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 2): When You went down to death, O Life Immortal, You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. When You raised the dead from the nether world, all the powers of heaven cried out: “O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

FEAST DAY KONDAK (Tone 2): You rose from the tomb, O almighty Savior; and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose. Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults. And the world, my Savior, sings Your praises for ever.

PROKIMEN (Tone 2): The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

Verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians (11: 31 – 12:9)

Brothers and Sisters! The God and Father of the Lord Jesus knows --- blessed be he forever --- that I do not lie. In Damascus the ethnarch of King Aretas was keeping a close watch on the city in order to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands. I must go on boasting, however useless it may be, and speak of visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ who, fourteen years ago, whether he was in or outside his body I cannot say, only God can say --- a man who was snatched up to the third heaven. I know that this man --- whether in or outside his body I do not know, God knows --- was snatched up to Paradise to hear words which cannot be uttered, words which no man may speak. About this man I will boast; but I will do no boasting about myself unless it be about my weaknesses. And even if I were to boast it would not be folly in me because I would only be telling the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from my lips. As to the extraordinary revelations, in order that I might not become conceited I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and keep me from getting proud. Three times I begged the Lord that this might leave me. He said to me, “My grace is enough for you, for in weakness power reaches perfection.” And so I willingly boast of my weaknesses instead, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

ALLELUIA VERSES: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

Lord, grant victory to the king, and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

GOSPEL: Luke 6: 31-36

The Lord said: "Do to others what you would have them do to you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, how can you claim any credit? Sinners do as much. If you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what merit is there in it for you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. Love your enemy and do good; lend without expecting repayment. Then will your recompense be great. You will rightly be called sons of the Most High, since he himself is good to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be compassionate, as your Father is compassionate."

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

OCTOBER FOOD BANK ITEM – CEREAL

The parish will be making perogies for sale to parishioners and outsiders. It was decided that we would make potato and onion perogies, and potato and cheese perogies. The dates chosen are Monday/Tuesday, October 16/17 and Monday/Tuesday, November 6/7. On the Monday evenings, it would be appreciated if the catechetical parents would help by peeling potatoes and onions. However, a few other volunteers may be needed as well. The perogy making bees would then be on the Tuesday evening starting at 6:00pm. Sign up sheets will be prepared for all days. This will be a good parish fund raiser and also an opportunity for some socializing and get-to-know your fellow parishioners. We look forward to seeing many of you then.

October is bottle drive month!! Our Monday night catechism classes once again be collecting bottles, cans, any Sarcan refundable items so that we can collect monies for the Child Jesus House Orphanage in Vynohrodovo Ukraine. Last year, Patrick, Evelina, Otto, Vasya, Ivanka, Natalka and Georgina were so very grateful for the packages they received. Your donations are very much appreciated. If you would like your refundables picked up please call or text Karen Woitas @ 306-775-0667, or bring them to church on Sunday – monetary donations accepted as well.

DICK MCCREARY

Heavenly Creator,
In this season of gratitude and abundance, we give You thanks
for our many blessings
as we pray for all who struggle with hunger and want.
Be with them in the dark of night,
when all hope seems lost.
Keep their faith strong as they await relief.
And let Your goodness flow through our hearts and hands as we reach out to one another in the full, true joy of Thanksgiving in Christ.

Amen

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Icon of Saints Sergius and Bacchus – October 7th

The shepherd needs great wisdom and a thousand eyes to examine the soul's condition from every angle ... The shepherd of sheep has the flock following him wherever he leads; or if some turn aside from the direct path and leave the good pasture to graze in barren and dangerous places, it is enough for him to call loudly, drive them back again, and restore to the flock those who were separated. But if a man wanders away from the right faith, the shepherd needs a lot of concentration, perseverance, and patience. He cannot drag by force or constrain by fear, but must by persuasion lead him back to the true beginning from which he has fallen away. He needs a heroic spirit, not to grow despondent or neglect the salvation of the wanderers, but to keep on thinking and saying: 'Perhaps God may give them the knowledge of the truth and they may be freed from the snare of the devil.'

It is not surprising that the Lord said concern for His sheep was a sign of love for Himself ... God has given greater power to priests than to natural parents, not only for punishment, but also for help. The difference between the two is as great as between the present and the future life. Parents bring us into this life; priests into the life to come. Parents cannot avert bodily death nor drive away the onset of disease; priests have often saved the soul that is sick and at the point of death, by making the punishment milder for some, and preventing others from ever incurring it, not only through instruction and warning, but also through helping them by prayer. They have authority to remit sins, not only when they regenerate us, but afterwards too ... Again, natural parents cannot help their sons if they fall foul of the prominent and powerful, but priests have often appeased the anger of God himself, to say nothing of rulers and kings.
