Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever! Слава Ісусу Христу! Слава на віки!

TWENTY - SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

TROPAR (Tone 1): Though the stone was sealed by the Jews and soldiers guarded Your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of life: Glory to Your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to Your kingdom! Glory to Your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 1): You arose in glory from the tomb and with Yourself You raised the world. All humanity acclaims You as God, and death has vanished. Adam exults, O Master, and Eve, redeemed now from bondage, cries out for joy: "You are the One, O Christ, Who offers resurrection to all."

PROKIMEN (Tone 1): Let Your mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

VERSE: Rejoice in the Lord, O you just; praise befits the righteous.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians (5: 8-19)

Brothers and Sisters! Live as children of light. Light produces every kind of goodness and justice and truth. Be correct in your judgment of what pleases the Lord. Take no part in vain deeds done in darkness; rather, condemn them. It is shameful even to mention the things these people do in secret; but when such deeds are condemned they are seen in the light of day, and all that then appears is light. That is why we read: "Awake, O sleeper, arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light." Keep careful watch over your conduct. Do not act like fools, but like thoughtful men. Make the most of the present opportunity, for these are evil days. Do not continue in ignorance, but try to discern the will of the Lord. Avoid getting drunk on wine; that leads to debauchery. Be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and inspired songs. Sing praise to the Lord with all your hearts.

ALLELUIA VERSES: God gives me vindication, and has subdued peoples under me.

Making great the salvation of the king, and showing mercy to His anointed, to David, and to His posterity for ever.

GOSPEL: Luke (12: 16-21)

At that time the Lord told this parable: "There was a rich man who had a good harvest. 'What shall I do?' he asked himself. 'I have no place to store my harvest. I know!' he said, 'I will pull down my grain bins and build larger ones. All my grain and my goods will go there. Then I will say to myself: You have blessings in reserve for years to come. Relax! Eat heartily, drink well. Enjoy yourself.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life shall be required of you. To whom will all this piled-up wealth of yours go?' That is the way it works with the man who grows rich for himself instead of growing rich in the sight of God."

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Prayer Thermometer:

CIX! Our Catechism class would like to challenge us all to pray together as a church family. From now until Christmas when pray Our Father, Hail Mary and the Rosay at home, work or church etc. please keep a tally of how many prayers you recite. Tally sheets are available at the entrance. Each Our Father and Hail Mary count as one point and each Rosary counts as 59 points. For example you may count your daily prayers, prayers before meals, opening prayers at meetings, rosary at church or even the our Father during liturgy. All these prayers can be recorded. You can keep track individually or as a family on the tally sheets. The tally sheets should be turned in each week so that we can mark the totals on the thermometer located at the entrance of the church. There will be a container to drop off your tally sheets. Remember that a family that prays together stays together. May God Bless you all as we pray and prepare for the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

APOSTLE ANDREW, THE FIRST CALLED ANALY AC ANALY AC The provided state of the content of the

The Good News The Twelve Proclaimed

Jesus is our peace. He came to make both Jews and Gentiles one, and to bring all things together in equality. He destroyed the strong and chose the weak, spurned the and wise welcomed the foolish, so that there should be equality, with no one claiming anything as his own. No one attains salvation and wisdom except by the divine bounty, so it behooves us all to make the Lord our boast.

Let us then, with awe reverence, rejoice in the Lord our God, who is both humble of heart and sublime in majesty. Let us make Christ's attitude our own: conferred on us the grace of salvation by assuming a humble condition, so that we who had deservedly fallen because of our pride might learn to rise again by humility.

But the good Lord, by His crucifixion and resurrection, sought not only to put an end to our death and restore us to immortality, but also to show us how to conduct ourselves in this present life, during which we gain merit in preparation for the blessings of eternity. What was the mysterious purpose of the Lord's love that led to His crucifixion? The Apostle teaches that it was to break down the dividing wall, to put a stop to hostility, and an end to worldly vanity, and by leading captivity captive to overcome all the power of the enemy. He condemned sin by means of sin, for He removed the cause of sin still lurking in the flesh of Adam through that very flesh of Adam which He deigned to take upon Himself In this way He destroyed the dividing wall, that is the sin which stood between us and God, and made both one, not only uniting Jews and Gentiles by faith in Christ, but also bringing harmony to the nature of all of us who believe, and ending in the peace of faith the discord which used to exist in us when the flesh was at war with the spirit. For now the age-old struggle in which the law of sin opposed the law of God is ended in Christ, since the spirit which serves God rules by faith the soul subjected to it, and the flesh in turn serves the soul that serves God, following it with all submission.

St. Paulinus of Nola
