СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!
Glory be to Jesus Christ! Glory be Forever!

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
- Feast of Christ the King

TROPAR (Tone 4): Christ, Our God, Your kingship has taken us out of the power of darkness and brought us into the Kingdom of Your love. You who are eternal, appeared as a King. Lord, glory be to You.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 7): Let us adore and fall down before the immortal King of the ages, the only all-wise God Christ, saying: Power, honor and kingdom have been bestowed upon You, and for this reason all the nations will serve You. Your power is everlasting and Your kingdom will not crumble, because the eternal King Christ became King for our sake.

PROKIMEN (Tone 3): Sing to our God, sing; sing to our King, sing.

VERSE: God is king of the whole world: play your best in his honor!

EPISTLE: A reading from the Second Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Colossians.
(1: 12-20)

Brothers and Sisters! Give thanks to the Father for having made you worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He rescued us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of his beloved Son. Through him we have redemption, the forgiveness of our sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creatures. In him everything in heaven and on earth was created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominations, principalities or powers; all were created through him, and for him. He is before all else that is. In him everything continues in being. It is he who is head of the body, the church; he who is the beginning, the first-born of the dead, so that primacy may be his in everything. It pleased God to make absolute fullness reside in him and by means of him, to reconcile everything in his person both on earth and in the heavens, making peace through the blood of his cross.

ALLELUIA VERSES: His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the river to the ends of the earth.

Verse: All kings will do Him homage, all nations become his servants.

GOSPEL: John (18: 33-37)

At that time, Pilate went back into the praetorium and summoned Jesus. "Are you the King of the Jews?" he asked him. Jesus answered, "Are you saying this on your own, or have others been telling you about me?" "I am no Jew!" Pilate retorted. "It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered: "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my subjects would be fighting to save me from being handed over to the Jews. As it is, my kingdom is not here." At this Pilate said to him, "So, then, you are a king?" Jesus replied: "It is you who say I am a king. The reason I was born, the reason why I came into the world is to testify to the truth. Anyone committed to the truth hears my voice."

INSTEAD OF 'It is truly right...': My soul, glorify Christ who became the King of the universe. Lord God, the Son of the eternal Father, became Man by the Virgin and appeared among us to enlighten those who dwelt in darkness, and to assemble those who were scattered. For this reason we glorify the ever-praised Mother of God.

COMMUNION HYMN: The Lord is our Judge, the Lord is our Prince, the Lord is our King and He will save us. Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia!

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

Christ's kingdom is not a kingdom of earth. He said to Pilate, "My Kingdom does not belong to this world" (Jn 18:36).

The name by which the Kingdom of God is most commonly called is the Church. It is at once Divine and human; on earth and heaven. Small as a mustard seed in its beginning, it was destined to become catholic, that is, to embrace all the earth. This concept of the Church as the one universal Kingdom of God makes it evident that there can be only one true Church, just as there can be only one true Kingdom of God.

The Church is Jesus Christ, living on and acting in the world through His duly authorized ministers, until the end of time. He gave to His Church a form, an organization which would enable it to carry on His work on earth-to teach, to rule, and to administer to the souls of men.
