СЛАВА ІСУСУ ХРИСТУ! СЛАВА НА ВІКИ!
Glory Be To Jesus Christ! Glory Be Forever!

TWENTY- FOURTH SUNDAY after PENTECOST
- St. Michael, the Archangel

TROPAR (Tone 7): By Your cross You destroyed death; You opened Paradise to the thief; You changed the lamentation of the myrrh-bearers to joy, and charged the apostles to proclaim that You are risen, O Christ, our God, offering great mercy to the world.

TROPAR OF THE ARCHANGEL (Tone 4): Princes of the heavenly hosts, we, though unworthy, beg you to encircle us through your prayers under the shelter of the wings of your spiritual glory. Guard us as we come to you and sincerely cry: “Deliver us from dangers, O princes of the powers on high!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen!

KONDAK (Tone 7): No longer shall the dominion of death be able to hold humanity, for Christ went down shattering and destroying its powers. Hades is bound. The prophets exult with one voice. The Savior has come for those with faith, saying: “Come forth, O faithful, to the resurrection!”

PROKIMEN (Tone 7): The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Verse: Bring to the Lord, O you sons of God; bring to the Lord young rams.

EPISTLE: A reading from the Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians. (2: 14-22)

Brothers and Sisters! It is Christ who is our peace, and who made the two of us one by breaking down the barrier of hostility that kept us apart. In his own flesh he abolished the law with its commands and precepts, to create in himself one new man from us who had been two and to make peace, reconciling both of us to God in one body through his cross, which put that enmity to death. He came and “announced the good news of peace to you who were far off, and to those who were near”; through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. This means that you are strangers and aliens no longer. No, you are fellow citizens of the saints and members of the household of God.

You form a building which rises on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the capstone. Through him the whole structure is fitted together and takes shape as a holy temple in the Lord; in him you are being built into this temple, to become a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

ALLELUIA VERSES: It is good to give praise to the Lord; and to sing in Your name, O Most High.

To announce Your mercy in the morning and Your truth every night.

GOSPEL: Luke 8: 41-56

At that time, a man named Jairus, who was chief of the synagogue, came up and fell at Jesus' feet, begging that he come to his home because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying. As Jesus went, the crowds almost crushed him. A woman with a hemorrhage of twelve years' duration, incurable at any doctor's hands, came up behind him and touched the tassel on his cloak. Immediately her bleeding stopped. Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" Everyone disclaimed doing it, while Peter said, "Lord, the crowds are milling and pressing around you!" Jesus insisted, "Someone touched me, I know that power has gone forth from me." When the woman saw that her act had not gone unnoticed, she came forward trembling. Falling at his feet, she related before the whole assemblage why she had touched him and how she had been instantly cured. Jesus said to her, "Daughter, it is your faith that has cured you. Now go in peace." He was still speaking when a man came from the ruler's house with the announcement, "Your daughter is dead; do not bother the Teacher further." Jesus heard this, and his response was: "Fear is useless, what is needed is trust and her life will be spared." Once he had arrived at the house, he permitted no one to enter with him except Peter, John, James and the child's parents. While everyone wept and lamented her, he said, "Stop crying for she is not dead but asleep." They laughed at him, being certain she was dead. He took her by the hand and spoke these words: "Get up, child." The breath of life returned to her and she got up immediately; whereupon he told them to give her something to eat. Her parents were astounded, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

COMMUNION HYMN: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest.

He makes spirits his angels, and flaming fire his ministers. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

October, 2026

Dear Saint Athanasius parish members:

For the past seven years October has been “bottle drive” month at our parish.

The Monday night catechism classes have used October as the month to collect donations that will be used to purchase Christmas gifts for the seven children who call the Child Jesus House orphanage in Vynogradiv, Ukraine home.

Once again, this year, we will be collecting donations for this meaningful cause. If you would like to consider giving please see Karen Woitas, as past coordinator of Monday night catechism and lead for the fundraiser, as she will be collecting the donations, shopping for the gifts and “teaming up” with Sr. Georgia to get our parcel to Ukraine. This year, I thought it would be nice if you could write a Christmas card to the children and maybe include a picture from Canada and we could send the cards with the gifts.

Karen can be reached at 306.775.0667 or just see her in the hall if you would like to donate.

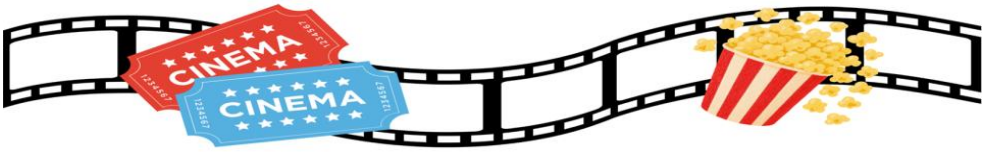

God Bless

Karen Woitas – past coordinator of Monday night catechism and lead for the Child Jesus House Orphanage fundraiser.

TWENTY – FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Icon of St. Michael the Archangel
Feast day: November8

OPEN THE GATES OF HOLINESS

An artist painted a well known picture of Jesus which shows Him, lantern in hand, knocking on the door of a house, seeking admission. The artist pictured the house without a latch on the outside of the door. The house was symbolic. It represented the heart of a person and the door to it can be opened only from the inside. This leaves Jesus hopelessly outside in the elements if the occupant refuses Christ entry.

To shut the door of our hearts is to shut out Christ. "Lift up your heads, O gates, and be lifted up eternal gates, and the King of Glory will enter." "Open for Me the gates of holiness." Jesus visits with love all those who hear and respond to His knock. He brings with Him the riches and joy of His grace. He brings a spiritual light that will shine and illumine the minds and souls of those who seek His presence.

St. Augustine tells us, "Awake, mankind! God has become man. Awake, you who sleep; rise up from the dead, and Christ will enlighten you. I tell you again; for your sake God became man. You would have suffered eternal death, had He not been born in time. Never would you have been freed from sinful flesh, had He not taken on Himself the likeness of sinful flesh. You would have suffered everlasting unhappiness, had it not been for His mercy. You would never have returned to life, had He not shared your death. You would have been lost, if He had not hastened to your aid. You would have perished had He not come." Therefore, open the doors of our hearts and welcome Christ.
